Here To Serve — Prayer Support

The Consistory advises our Church Family that a number of avenues are available for prayer support on Sundays in conjunction with our regular worship services. These include:

- A prayer support group that meets before the service every Sunday morning in our library. Everyone can participate in this time of prayer to address their needs, personal struggles or events that concern us on a larger scale.
- Our serving elder is available before and after the service to support people in prayer, and to bring their prayer requests forward in the service if requested. If asked, we also have some quiet spots available to join in prayer for the needs of the individual.
- Our Church Council members attending a service are always available to be of service. We encourage anyone struggling with spiritual or physical matters to approach a Council Member who you are comfortable with, to share your needs and/or pray with them.
