

I Will Establish You

Isaiah 14:1-2

Babylon was the pride and joy of the Chaldeans, a ruthless and cruel people, and God executed judgement on them. They ruled over the Israelites, but God turned the tables on them. God said he would destroy Babylon, but he would not do that with Jacob. He would have compassion on Jacob and choose Israel.

The Babylonians would become slaves to Israel and serve them. They ruled over them in Babylon, but now they would be the ones who would bless Israel.

We must be careful how we treat one another. God chooses whoever he wishes to rule. One day it may be you, and the next day it may be the person you are opposed to. Jesus said the 'son of man' did not come to be served, but to serve and give his life as a ransom for many.

Although the prodigal son wasted his resources, his father welcomed him back with open arms and reestablished him as his son. On the way to Calvary's cross, Jesus was beaten, but the Roman soldiers did not realize that they were escorting him back to glory.

God will send you an escort. He will bless you, your home, your land, and prepare it before you get there. He will make you a royal priesthood. God will fight for your future, children, and home.

In Isaiah 66:2 God says, "I will bring you back to my temple as a grain offering." God redeems his people and blesses them. When the Israelites left Egypt, they left with the wealth of the land.

Nations will bless you that are not righteous, holy and do not have faith in Jesus Christ.

God will make you the master. He will send you help from the sanctuary and support from Zion.
