

Trinity Methodist Church (Jacksonville, NC) seeks a full-time Associate Pastor

Job Description

Trinity Methodist Church in Jacksonville, NC, seeks a full-time Associate Pastor. Under the Senior Pastor's leadership, the Associate Pastor will also be responsible for pastoral duties, including member care, visitation, Wesleyan-style small group ministry, and worship responsibilities.

Trinity Methodist Church, a congregation of the Global Methodist Church, has a membership of over 300 and offers contemporary and traditional services. Jacksonville, NC, with its population of 72,723 residents, is a military town (Camp Lejeune and New River Air Station) with an active-duty population of 38,778. The church community is passionate about serving one another and the community. For more information, please visit Trinity Methodist Church's website or social media pages.

A compensation package in the range of $80,000- $90,000 (based on experience) will be negotiated. The application deadline is August 30, 2025. For the job description, application, and additional information, contact office@trinityjaxnc.church.