The point that Paul is trying to make here is that those “asleep” are not going to lag behind.

When you die and that body goes into the grave, that body reposes in Christ.

Those alive will be snatched up by an irresistible force, plucked out of this world.

This is a _____ operation.

The church _____ joins the church _____ to become the church glorified.

God is often associated with _____.

Some support a post-Tribulational Rapture.

The King, Jesus, is coming but He’s not coming to a welcoming Earth; He’s coming to an Earth not _____ to receive Him at all.

The last point here is the profit of the Rapture. What’s the benefit of this? _____.

There will be no need to grieve, to sorrow.

Christians never say a final goodbye.

We should cry with all our hearts as John did, “Even so, come Lord Jesus.”

“The Judgment of the Believers’ Works”

Believers will be judged by Christ at the Bema Seat judgment.

Opinions vary about when the judgment of works for believers will occur.

One of the greatest motivating forces in the life of Paul was this very truth: that Jesus was _____ back.

If you give anything less than total commitment to the Christian life, you have _____ God.

Jesus is coming to reward those who’ve faithfully served Him. This motivated Paul.

Second thing that motivated Paul in 2 Corinthians 5 was Christ’s love was _____.

A third thing that motivated Paul was that Christ’s work was _____.

We all like to evaluate other people’s spirituality. And very often we fall into the habit of either downing somebody or elevating somebody.

Only God can evaluate and really honor men; and He will ultimately. Ultimately there will be a time for reward.
