

Good News from Grace

August 2025

Let's talk about Brother Lawrence. Not to be confused by Deacon Lawrence, who in a previous sermon, I talked about him being cooked alive, and when he felt that he was fully cooked on one side, he famously said; "Turn me over, I am done on this side!" That wild human was not Brother Lawrence. But in some dark humor, Deacon Lawrence is the patron saint of cooks, not Brother Lawrence, true story. Brother Lawrence had very humble beginnings, as he started his spiritual journey as a humble cook. With so many learned individuals in the religious space in Rome at the time, it was easy to overlook the spiritual intelligence and awareness of the laity. Even though Brother Lawrence didn't have a fancy degree in religion or spirituality, he had a divine gift; the gift of spiritual discipline and awareness. Brother Lawrence's goal in life was to be conscious of the presence of God in all things. For Lawrence, spirituality was not limited to going to church, praying on ones knees, or doing stereotypical spiritual disciplines. Instead, he found the presence of God in the acts of chopping carrots, scrubbing pots and pans, handing food to the hungry and all of those acts of service that so often go unnoticed. He said, "Our sanctification...does not depend upon changing our works, but in doing for God's sake that which we commonly do for our own." Basically, do what you are good at in the secular world, and do it for God. Brother Lawrence teaches us the importance of the ministry and gifts of all of God's people, not just Pastor's, Deacons and the Religious (Nuns, Monks, etc). The Pastor is not the church, the people are, and Brother Lawrence reminds us to not allow our human designed hierarchies to get in the way of witnessing and lifting up the gifts that all people have been given by God, for God's people. We together are the church, all of us matter, all of us are needed, all of us are called to do God's work in the world. We all have a vocation to serve God and neighbor in the ways that we are called. No one way of service, prayer, or spirituality is right or wrong. God is big enough for all the ways that God is calling God's people into relationship. As with all things that God asks of us, this is easier said than done. But whether or not we are successful in realizing this goal, the direction should never change. The desire to bring all people together into community under the love of God should never stop being our goal. And the way that we can accomplish this, is by allowing God to speak through all who come with open hearts for God and God's people as we use our gifts for the glory of God and God's creation, just like Brother Lawrence did. Thank you for all that you do for God's church, the gifts, the wisdom, the passion, and the pursuit of being who God calls us to be in this world.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Chad Butz

Our Purpose

The purpose of our church is to make a difference by serving others through God's love and our faith.

Jesus' transforming presence

"But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, 'Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount.' Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost'" (Luke 19:8-10 NIV).

Who knew, all those kids sitting in Sunday school were getting a lesson in stewardship! Generations of children have very often heard lessons based on the familiar account of Zacchaeus. The diminutive tax collector's curiosity surrounding the person and ministry of Jesus is what the Holy Spirit used to set him on a collision course for a total stewardship transformation. This transformation, according to the text of Luke 19, is not just about this life. This stewardship transformation is about eternity as well!

This is why the people had such disdain for Jewish tax collectors. They were seen as both crooks and traitors. They were crooks in that they extorted their compatriots and others in the toll process. But worse, they were seen as traitors because their efforts supported the occupying Roman authorities. That is the real reason that the people would not make way so that short Zacchaeus could see Jesus.

For this reason, he runs ahead and climbs a tree. He had heard all the stories. He wanted to see this Jesus with his own eyes. Mercy is on display. This hated crook and traitor gets a direct audience with Jesus — at Jesus' own request! Jesus invites Himself to Zacchaeus' house. This is where the transformation is about to take place! Notice how Jesus does it. He does not preach a three-week sermon series, nor does He ask Zacchaeus to make a pledge. There is nothing programmatic about Jesus' approach. But Zacchaeus is completely transformed! The transforming force is the very presence of Jesus! Direct time with Jesus takes a crooked, selfish, criminal and makes him the most faithful steward.

This new life of stewardship is marked by the promises made. First, he gives half of his ill-gotten gains to the poor. These are people whom he would not have defrauded at all! Yet, after spending time with Jesus, they are His first concern. Only after this does he double the requirement of the Levitical law on fraud. And what does Jesus say is the result? Salvation!

Doing the acts of stewardship does not save. Rather, the faith in Jesus that is created by the Holy Spirit is what saves! This is critical for us to confess. Failed stewardship can and will cut you off from God. The only antidote for failed stewardship is the presence of Jesus.

We do not need to run ahead and climb a tree for this presence of Jesus. He makes Himself available to us every week in the Divine Service. He speaks His Word of invitation to us in the pages of Holy Scripture. This, and this alone, transforms us from sinner to saint, from owner to steward of all that belongs to the Lord.

Do you want to become a more faithful steward? Spend more time with Jesus. Make the Divine Service a weekly priority. Feast on Christ's body and blood weekly! This is the great gift that brings salvation from God's House to yours!

He will contact the individual to find out whether they wish to be added to the "out loud" prayers or "ongoing prayers".

Prayer List Policy

Let's be good stewards of our prayer list. If someone has healed, or if someone has moved on to eternal life, please let the church office know. Names will automatically be moved to the ongoing prayers after a month on the weekly prayers, which are read out loud during worship. They will then be removed from the ongoing prayers after another month unless you let us know to keep praying.
