

Where's your heart at? What brings you joy and what causes you pain? Is your heart toward God in this season?

How's your soul? Are you at peace? Are you running on empty or filled with God's presence?

What's your mind like these days?
What consumes your thoughts?
What narratives play on repeat in your head?

Are you caring for your body?
Are you using your might for God?
