Missions Spotlight

Pastor P. A.

Director of Church Plants in Indonesia

"The half part of last year due to my wife's health condition and her home going to the Lord was spent mostly in the Philippines.

I was back in my ministry location for a short time then back again to the Philippines. Many of my pastors friends are asking,

"Who's taking charge of the work?" My answer is, "They are under the hands and care of the believers whom we trained in the ministry." We have such men who take charge of the pulpit and other ministries there. I am thanking God for these men.

During my short visit to my ministry location a few months back, I led a couple to the Lord, Bro. Rico and his wife. It was such a joy leading them through the Scriptures, the plan of salvation and their need to repent and believe on the Lord Jesus as Saviour. We do ask for your prayers as they follow the Lord in baptism. Such experiences encourage us to keep sowing the seeds of the gospel; for in time the Lord will give the harvest. It takes time, no doubt about it. But for sure, when we have sown, God brings the harvest. I thank you all for partnering with us in these endeavors.

We have been praying earnestly to be able to purchase a shop house building for a church. Currently, the Lord has provided some funds towards this, and yet we still need some to complete the needed amount. It is my prayer that next year the Lord will provide us that property. We are asking God to give us the faith to believe that He is able.

Honestly, I am still adjusting to my new status. God has been good to me no doubt about it. But I still experience some grief in this journey. I have to face it head-on and face the reality of it.

Being able to be with pastors who have been in the same experience has been a great help. Please be patient with me. I do appreciate you all for taking time accommodating me sharing with you this experience. I do need more of your prayers for this particular aspect of my life's journey. May God be praised. Thank you for your prayers and faithful support.

May the Lord continually bless."
