

How the Invisible God Changes You

Bobby Harrington

August 24th, 2025

1. What plans do you have for Labor Day weekend and what do you most look forward to about those plans? Explain.
2. Read Jeremiah 31:31-34 and describe the thing that most stands out to you about these verses and/or the sermon on these verses. Explain.
3. How do you personally experience the difference between “trying to follow rules” and “living in a relationship with God through Jesus”?
4. What does it mean for God’s Word to be “written on your heart”? Can you share an example of a time when Scripture or the Spirit guided you from within?
5. In what ways do you feel a deep sense of belonging to God? And what are some obstacles that sometimes make you forget you belong to Him?
6. What does it mean to you that God desires a personal relationship with every believer, not just prophets, priests, or pastors? How has that shaped your walk with Him?
7. How has experiencing God’s forgiveness changed the way you see yourself and others? Do you ever struggle to truly believe that God remembers your sin no more?
8. What are some practical ways you can live as a “listen to the Spirit’s voice” this week—in your family, workplace, or community?
