

The Confessing Heart

Psalm 51

(2 Samuel 11:1-12:23)

The _____ is the root of all evil (Mark 7:14-23)

One of the deadliest sins for the Christian _____

David Recognizes that he needs a _____

It is hard to recognize our own sin because we often lack _____ in our life
_____ brings conviction

One of the best words to describe Psalm 51 _____

We often don't confess due to the fear of _____

When we _____ our sin from God we rob him of the opportunity to _____ us

You can have _____ to draw near to the throne of grace

There is _____ in salvation

Reflection Questions

1. Is there any sins of your heart, whether idols, or self-sins, or something else that the Holy Spirit is prompting you to confess this week?
2. Do you spend more time trying to get rid of fruit sins, or root sins?
3. What keeps you from confessing your sins to God? (1 John 1:9)
4. What keeps you from confessing your sins to another brother or sister (James 5:13-20)
