The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Glory Hall Meatloaf

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

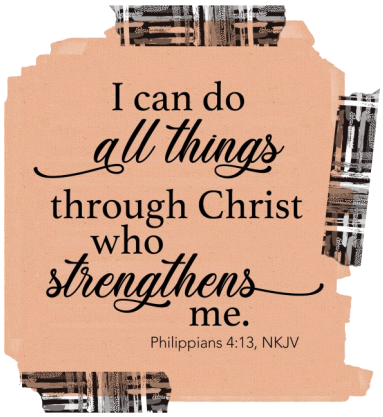

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

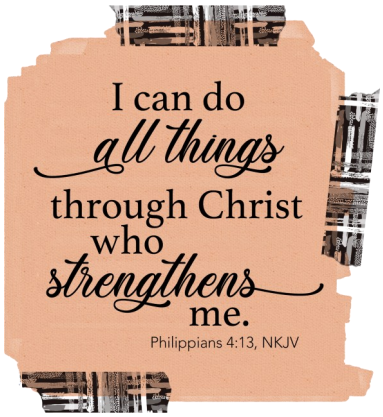
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

You're Not Alone

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

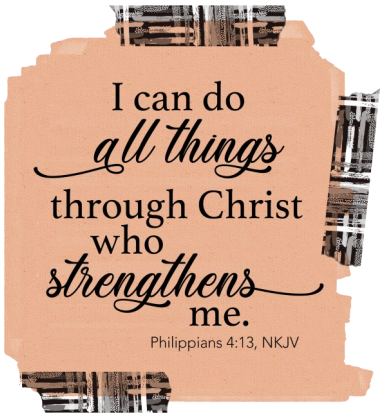
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

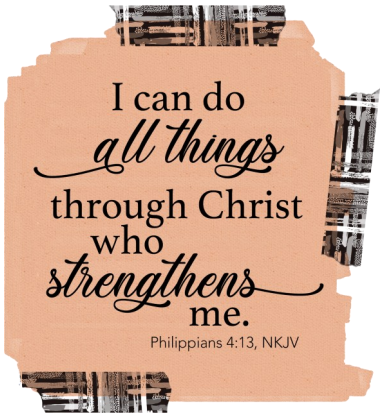
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

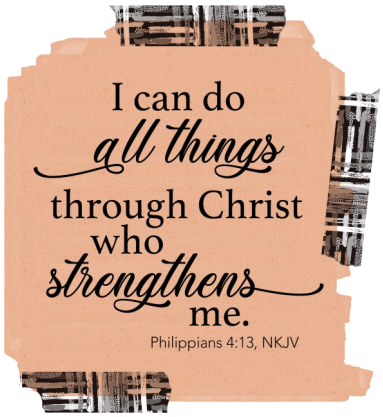

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention

December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

You're Not Alone

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

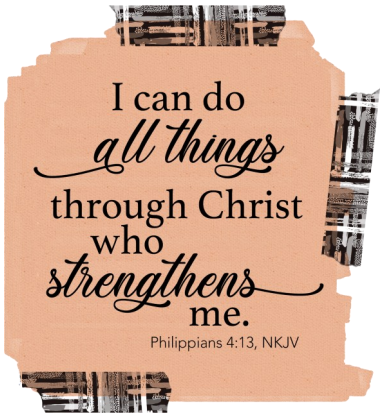
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

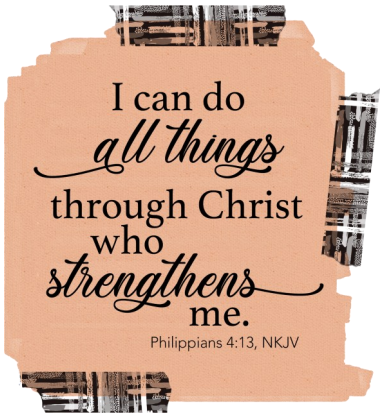

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

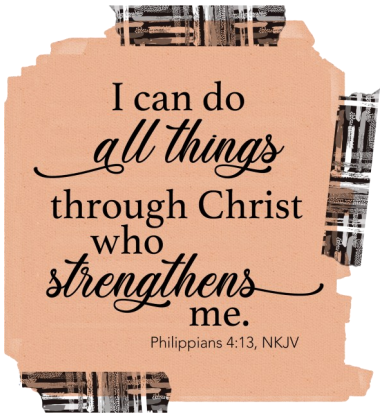
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

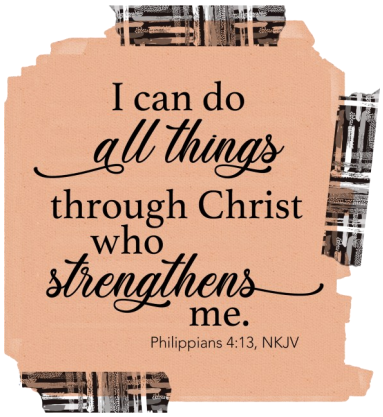
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

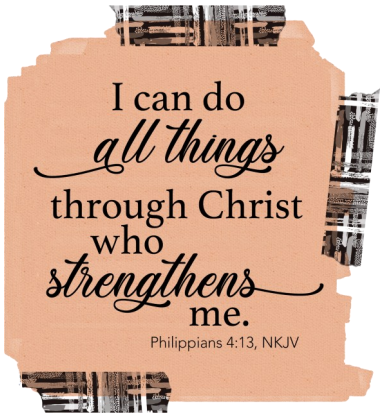
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

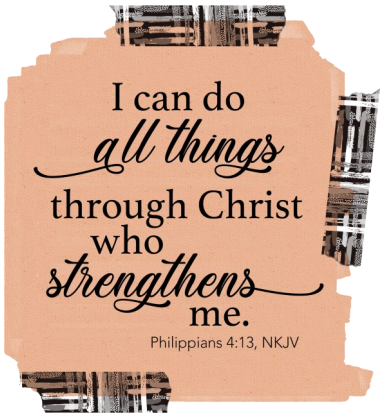

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

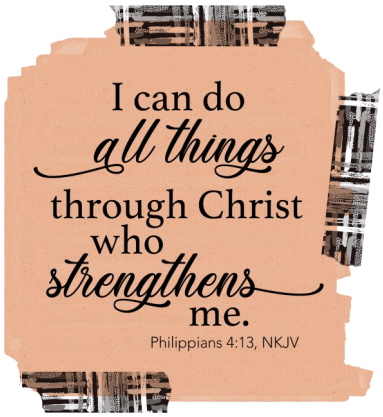
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Glory Hall Meatloaf

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

You're Not Alone

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Field Trips & Overnights

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

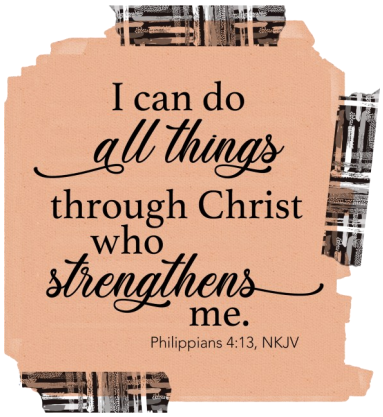

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

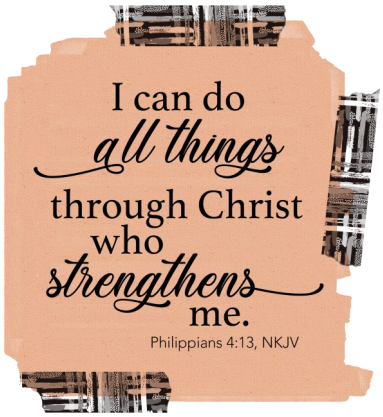
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

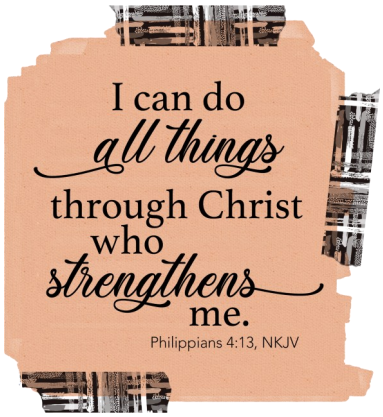
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

You're Not Alone

Please reach out by phone or through the link on the website to schedule a visit with the pastor or any of our life coaches. We have life coaches who are trained to walk with people during overwhelming times, or even to check in during "normal" times. If you're curious, feel free to ask Pastor Tari more about it.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

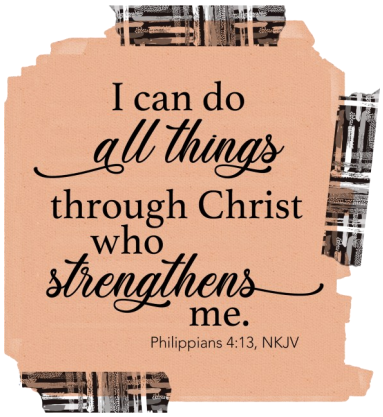
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

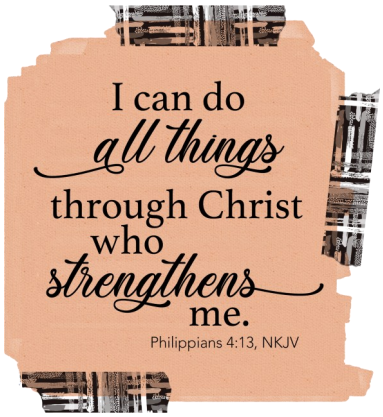
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

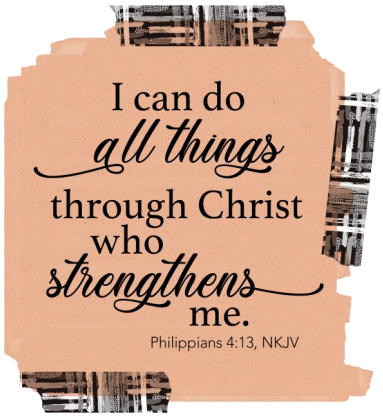
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Faith Formation

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

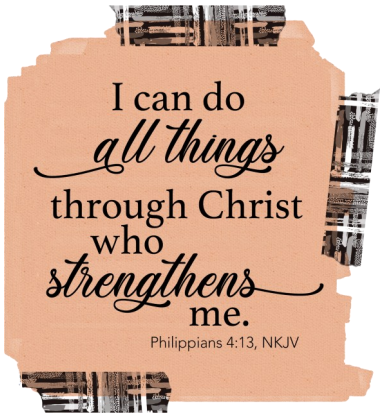
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
Matthew 11:28-30

The Shepherd's Voice

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

One of my goals as a pastor is to remove the word "just" from our vocabulary at church. Here are some of the ways I hear it creep in to conversations:

There were "just" three people who showed up; If only those people, agency, or church would "just" do . . ., then everything would be fine; "Father God, we just come before you . . .". Somehow "just" started showing up in prayers, not by my lips, but lots of others. I'm sure this makes me a petty, horrible person, but I like to make a game out of long evangelical prayers and count the times "just" is said.

People use "just" far too often on social media and in churches to mean "simply or only." It's a minimizing word that takes the complex particularities of relationships or systems and tries to make things feel small or easy. "Just" reduces intricacies into controllable simplicities.

I think of Men's Group that started with two or three guys showing up for a couple of years and now it is flourishing with a whole crew and lots of sharing and giggles. There were times it felt like "just" two or three, but that was enough for seeds to grow.

I think of how often people imagine they can solve someone else's problems if they "just" do one thing or another. One of the reasons we invested deeply in life coaching is to change the way we approach each other. You are not the expert on anyone else's life and the most faithful things we can do is ask good questions and listen for answers that help us move from stagnation into abundant life.

So when we talk about faith formation or Sunday School classes, there are times we will "just" have two or three people. There are times it will be tempting to shame or belittle others to "just" believe or do this or that to be right with God.

"Just" is not used in scripture often unless it is referring to justice. The word that does show up a bunch is the Greek word "idou." It means "pay attention," "behold," or "lo." We do not use "lo" nearly enough. Here's a fun exercise. Every time you are tempted to say "just," replace it with "behold."

Behold three people showed up. Behold the challenges and burdens someone faces and how they carry them. Oh God, behold I'm showing up in prayer.

Instead of minimizing the miracles with the word "just," "behold" makes us look, pay attention, and celebrate the minor miracles in our midst ("miracle" comes from the root "to wonder"). One of my favorite verses where "idou" shows up three times is Luke 17:21, "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, it is here!' or 'Lo, it is there!' For behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

Don't despair if church or life isn't turning out like you imagined; don't try to control or minimize the messiness of existence. Jesus calls us to look for the kingdom that has already come and continues to come.

Peace,
Pastor Tari

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

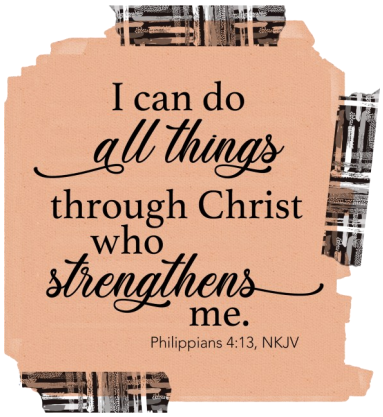
During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give



1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:

Alerting occupants of evacuation - who ever identified the threat/event. Usher calls 911 and keeps in contact with JPD.

In the event of a fire, pull fire alarm pull stations as evacuation starts. If trained and comfortable use fire extinguishers.

Evacuation routes and exits to primary and secondary assembly points.

Accountability of staff, volunteers, congregants, and visitors - Accountability officer would be the Lay Assistant.

Procedures for securing restricted areas, items of historical or religious/cultural significance, cash donations, or other valuable items.

Procedures for assisting children, the elderly, or those with disabilities/access and functional needs.

The Playground is OPEN

The playground was dedicated on Sunday, August 24 and every day since we've had kids playing there. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The pickets and permanent signage will be ordered hopefully before the end of this year. We have to order either 50 or 100 engraved pickets. We are currently at 65, but will probably be closer to 75 once we include some of the volunteers and in-kind donations. Please check our current list:

Sabbatical Update

Submitted by Pastor Tari

Sabbaticals are traditionally taken every seven years, so it's not quite time for another one, but it's close enough. I'll already be in New Zealand so it made sense to stay. Part of my time away will be spent hiking with Sophie, learning to shepherd real sheep, and spending time with friends and family.

I'm excited to introduce Linda Land-Clossen as the shepherd who will be in Juneau while I'm away (January to April 2026). Linda and I worked together 30+ years ago in Alaska, and many of you met Linda these last three years at camp.

From Linda's Resume:

Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies Religious and Psychological Studies Concentration Joint Ph.D. Program of the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology Dissertation: "Strings of Relationship and Community: A Dialogue between the Early Years of Bede Griffiths and the Theories of Jean Baker Miller"	2008
MA in Religious Studies University of Denver Thesis: "The Ordination of Theravadin Women"	1995
BS in Religious Studies Ball State University, Honors College	1992
Semester Abroad in Thailand School for International Training Independent Research Project: "Thai Impressions of Mae Ji"	1990

Teaching

Assistant Professor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2019 – 2023
Term Instructor, Peace and Justice Studies Department, Regis University	2017 – 2019

Other things to know from Linda

Member of Church of the Beloved (of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion); Eucharistic Minister and a lector there.
Participating in a Truth and Reconciliation pilgrimage through ECC to Montgomery, AL Legacy sites.
She is an oblate with the Benet Hill Monastery in Monument, CO (since July 2024).
She participates in a variety of food ministries.
She participates in monthly contemplative circle gatherings.

Part of our preparation is working on Lutheran liturgy and theology, but our bishop has approved her leadership at Shepherd of the Valley. I think you'll enjoy Linda and she will help us develop some of the contemplative practices that are not my forte.

Thanks for supporting time of renewal and rest for me and for the congregation.

Peace,

[28] Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Monthly Newsletter of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church

Thank you to everyone who helped come up with ideas and plans for Faith Formation this year. We're always growing and reforming how we meet and develop in our relationships with each other and God. Our first day of classes will be Sunday, August 31.

Here is the current plan for Sunday mornings:

* Meagan Hinton, Lisa Wallace, Michelle Weaver, and Heidi Herter will lead younger kids in learning about the sacraments and what Lutherans believe

* Pastor Tari & Christy Wallace will lead 5th-7th grade confirmation classes. The schedule was mailed to parents. If you are willing to be a mentor, please talk to Pastor Tari.

* Scott Hinton, Bob Williams and Kirt Stage-Harvey will hang out with the high schoolers.

* Scott Ranger will lead adults in a study of the book of Ruth.

Ways to Serve in September/October

Glory Hall Meatloaf

We cook and serve our monthly meal on Wednesdays, September 17 and October 15. Watch the weekly emails for the sign-up sheet for needed contributions of time and food.

"The Caring Canteen" Food Truck

What a remarkable ministry! This is a great experience to invite friends to help serve. The menu is flexible; 100+ meals are cooked and served; and the budget is $250. If interested, you can either talk to Gail Fenumiai directly, or talk to us in the church office and we will put you in touch with her.

SOV's next two turns with The Caring Canteen are Tuesdays, September 9 and September 30.

Food Pantry

The pantry is open from 9-10 a.m. Saturdays; and on the last Saturday of the month we serve a free hot breakfast. Deliveries to folks who are homebound are available on Saturdays too. Call the pantry line at (907) 500-3588 for info.

SOV Hosts Family Promise

During the month of October, SOV is the static site for Family Promise of Juneau. We provide dinners and volunteer hosts for two of those weeks: October 12-19 and 26-31. Stay tuned for ways to help. If you are unfamiliar with Family Promise, please check out this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WulJjnY4YzM&t=4s

Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship

Savory or sweet—snacks and treats are always appreciated on Sunday mornings. Did you celebrate a birthday or other special event during the week and have delicious leftover cake? Or did you make/buy too many cookies? Too many apples? Bring your yummy "leftovers" to share during Sunday morning coffee fellowship!

Giving Updates

Ways to Give

1. Place checks or cash in the offering plate.
2. Sign up for regular giving through Tithely at www.sovlutheran.org/give
3. Sign up through Vanco using the QR code.

10% PFD for Winter Costs

We have managed to reduce our oil consumption, but winter costs for plowing and electricity remain high. Please consider donating 10% of your PFD to help offset these costs.

Prayer Shawls

Do you knit or crochet? Would you be willing to make a shawl for SOV's prayer shawl ministry? We like to have a variety of shawls available to give to loved ones who are going through a transition in their lives. For any situation where your loved one might need an extra hug—you are invited to choose a shawl and prayer card from the display at the back of the sanctuary and give it as a gift. If you are willing and able to make a shawl, please do so! If you have questions, feel free to ask Alice Gates (she knows of some patterns and can answer questions).

With Grateful Hearts

Sunday Morning Loose Offering

Thank you for your loose offerings in July and August. We raised $199 for Special Olympics and over $467 for the Children's Advocacy Center.

September—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southeast Alaska
October—Suicide Prevention
November—Juneau Animal Rescue (JAR)
December—SE Alaska AEYC (Association for the Education of Young Children)

Thanks from Nigeria

A huge thank you from Nuwayina in Nigeria. We recently sent $800 for flood relief. In late August, the area near her in Yobe where her daughter Namsi lives was destroyed by floods. Over 500 homes were destroyed as well as schools. We sent funds to help with food and shelter.

Caring Canteen

The Caring Canteen has been operating for over a year. Thank you to Gail Fenumiai for her leadership, ELCA domestic hunger grant for the funding, and to all the volunteers who have helped cook and serve. This has been a wonderful opportunity to get to know our neighbors.

[16] Rejoice always, [17] pray without ceasing, [18] give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Looking Ahead to the Holidays

Gift cards for AWARE

We will gather grocery gift cards for Thanksgiving from October 26 to November 23. Grocery gift cards for Christmas will be gathered from November 23 through December 14. If you would like to purchase gifts for one of their families, contact AWARE directly at (907) 586-6623.

Seafarer's International

We'll again gather supplies for Seafarer's International - you don't have to purchase an entire satchel worth of items. The due date for satchel items will be sometime in November; we will also have a gathering to put the satchels together.

Please help us make 2025 another banner year. 90% of global trade is transported on the world's oceans by crew members on container ships who remain invisible to most people, yet our supply chains depend on their services and sacrifice of being at sea for months on end. Seafarers are often overworked and lonely. We invite you, your business, school group or congregation to spread the joy of Christmas among those who will not be home with their loved ones. Our port chaplains deliver satchels filled with gifts. Mariners regardless of their faith or nationality will receive satchels filled with:

One Sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size M-L)
Three Pairs of Socks – thermal or gym
One T- Shirt (size M-L)
One Knitted Winter Cap (coordinating scarf optional; no pastels please)
One small Can of Nuts, Large Bar of Chocolate, or Healthy Snack Bar
A Holiday or Christmas Card from YOU!

You pick the colors, styles and brands, but please no substitutions from the list. For the safety of seafarers, please do not add fringes or pom-poms to the hats and scarves. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew. Please assemble each satchel with sweatshirts and T-shirts of the same size and label the satchel with a M or L on the back side.

What might otherwise have been another lonely night at sea becomes a joyous occasion, because complete strangers share the spirit of Christmas with seafarers!

Master Facility Update

Columbarium

We are hoping to do the final masonry work on the seat bench this fall. If you are interested in purchasing one of the columbarium niches, please talk to Pastor Tari or a member of the committee.

FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant

The lighting is completed! This was the major project and the next phase is security cameras. The next major part is working on replacing some of the doors and windows.

Landscaping

A huge thank you to Doug and Wendy Larsen for all their work moving dirt and making things beautiful. We are still a work in process, but things are starting to come together.

Fire Drill at Church

We are planning a fire drill on September 14 (weather permitting). It is in our constitution to do one annually and this will be our first. Here is a basic list of our evacuation procedures:
