L: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

P: I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate.

L: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

P: But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells with me.

L: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

P: I can will what is right, but I cannot do it.

L: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

P: Miserable creature that I am! Who will rescue me from the body of death?

L: God alone through Jesus Christ our Lord!

ALL: Thanks be to God.

Sermon Scripture. Matthew 11:25-30 (ESV)

25 At that time Jesus declared, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; 26 yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.

27 All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. 28 Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Prayer of the Christian Community | Lord's Prayer

Liturgist

You are our guardian and shield, O God, our protector who keeps us from falling. You surround us with righteousness that wards off evil forces; in Christ is the assurance to withstand ways that may tempt us. You shower us with your mercy that cleanses wrongdoing. You temper your judgment with compassion. We stand in adoration and in praise of your name, as we lift up the prayer that Jesus taught us to pray...
