

CAMPUS MINISTRY OKANAGAN

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Hard to believe that I'm starting a 9th year as campus pastor at UBCO!

After all these years the ministry definitely includes activities that get repeated year over year: a Bible study and prayer group, speaking engagements at the Christian student clubs, faculty group, pastoral care and mentorship, etc., are all on the agenda for the 2025-26 academic year.

But there's always room for something fresh. This year Dorothy Cui is working with me on a new project: "Exploring the Christian Imagination". Dorothy loves sharing her faith with others and, as a Fine Arts student, is eager to explore how the gospel shapes how we imagine the world around us and image it through painting, literature and music. Over the year, we'll work on a few things:

- biweekly reading and discussion on thinking theologically about art, literature, music;
- an interview with a Christian painter and prof at UBCO;
- undergrad small group based on the classic Christian novel Crime and Punishment by Dostoevsky.

It was said of C. S. Lewis that he was a great apologist for Christianity not because he always had the best arguments but because his writings stoked our imaginations to hunger for God. We're hoping to find this out for ourselves, specifically through the undergrad small group, which will be pitched at non Christians. Please keep us in prayer!
