Hope • Purpose • Belonging

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK DAVID WILLIS

In 1905, a farmer in North Carolina recorded the date of his first corn planting. He did the same every year until his death in 1950. Looking back, his family noticed something remarkable: while weather patterns shifted and yields rose and fell, the seasons themselves always came; planting, harvest, winter rest, and spring growth. The rhythms of creation kept moving, steady as the sunrise.

As we turn from the warmth of summer toward the first hints of fall (perhaps), we're reminded of God's promise in Genesis 8:22. Just as the seasons change without fail, the Lord remains faithful through every stage of life. The long days of summer give way to new routines, school starting back, work schedules shifting, church ministries ramping up for the months ahead.

Each season invites us to trust God afresh. For some, autumn means renewed focus on study and growth; for others, it's a time to rest from summer's busyness and prepare for the harvest God has planned. The crisp air and shorter days remind us that nothing stays the same except the faithfulness of the One who governs the seasons.

Let's step into this new season with open hands and expectant hearts, ready for what God will do in and through us. He was faithful in the summer just past. He will be faithful in the fall to come.

*"As long as the earth
endures, seedtime
and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night
will never cease."*

Genesis 8:22

SEPTEMBER'S COMMUNION OFFERING

September Communion Offering will go toward A SHELTERING TREE.

A Sheltering Tree is a pregnancy center where volunteers support the mission to be the hands and feet of Christ to whomever walks in the door. Based out of St. Andrew Baptist Church's Center of Hope, A Sheltering Tree offers counseling services, referrals for maternity care and community support, they provide clothing for both mother and baby, car seats, diapers, formula and baby food. Our very own Amanda Coffman co-chairs and supports her friend and director of the center, Pam Hill. Together they walk God's grace into our community.

Fall Retreat

November 6-9, 2025

"Changing from Chaos to Calm"

Lakeside Retreat Center in Seale, AL

"Be still and know that I am God" Psalm 46:10

Come to this retreat to explore how God wants to teach us to rest and find peace in the midst of the chaos and confusion of this world.

We will talk about how our "hustle" culture can deceive us by promoting the idea that being busy equates to being successful and important.

These three days will fill your heart and reset your soul as you enjoy a weekend of rest, reflection, fellowship, and encouragement through uplifting teaching and worship music.

Our focus will be learning how to BE STILL like God teaches us instead of BE BUSY like the world tells us.
