Questions for Further Application:

1. In your experience, when do you think selfish pride is the most difficult to control?
Explain your answer.

2. How does Jesus' humble life and death serve as both the antidote to the deadly poison of pride, as well as a rubric for a life of humble service?

3. Agree/Disagree and explain: Pride is so dangerous that it's better to be proud of nothing to keep ourselves from falling into that sin. (Look up Jer. 9:23-24 for further thinking on this)

Proverbs 25:6-7a

and do not claim a place among his great men;
