Liturgist

Based on Deuteronomy 30:15-20

L: See, today God sets before us life and death, blessings and curses.

P: We choose life, that we and our children may live.

L: The Lord calls us to love Him, to walk in His ways, to keep His commands, decrees, and statutes.

P: We set our hearts on the Lord, to obey His voice and to hold fast to Him.

L: For the Lord is our life and the length of our days.

P: In Him we find hope, guidance, and blessing.

L: Come then, let us worship the God who calls us into covenant and faithfulness.

ALL: With joy and reverence, we choose the way of life!

Sermon Scripture

Psalm 1 (ESV)

1 Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; 2 but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. 3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. 4 The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. 5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; 6 for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Prayer of the Christian Community

Holy God, we come before You in truth and humility. We confess that apart from Your Spirit, we are easily drawn to the counsel of the wicked, the way of sinners, and the seat of scoffers. Yet in Your mercy, the Holy Spirit indwells us—inviting us to life, rooting us in Christ, teaching us to delight in Your Word, and keeping us in the way of righteousness. We ask that our lives would be like trees by streams of living water, bearing fruit in season and enduring in faith. Guard us from pride and self-sufficiency, and form us as a community wholly dependent on You. Watch over us, Lord, and lead us in the way of life that never perishes. Amen.
