Shakiba Sattar, Beyond the Border

My journey as an artist has been one of movement across lands, cultures, and realities. I was born in Iran and now create in Canada, living between two worlds, each of which shapes my identity and art. "Beyond Borders" reflects this borderland space, where the self is torn between memories of home and the search for freedom.

My portrait paintings depict fragmented identities, ambiguous emotions, and the tension between belonging and forgetting. Through each brushstroke, I navigate the unseen lines that separate and connect us, challenging the physical and psychological boundaries that define our existence. Through abstract and surreal portraits, I explore themes of identity, repression and transformation. Faces fade, features distort, but essence remains – a symbol of the resilience of those who refuse to disappear.

Being is about presence in a world that often seeks to erase it, about claiming space through art when society dictates otherwise. My work serves as a reminder: I am here, I exist, and so do my stories.

The future is uncertain. How does our theology help or hinder us as we navigate the turbulence of our times? How do we hold fast in these chaotic and changing times? Together you'll look at some of the theological voices of our time and explore their insights to dig into some of the issues of our day.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us,
