The committee is looking for artwork that celebrates your joy in creating art. Works must not have been shown previously at HRC. Acceptance for the exhibit is not guaranteed. Artwork must be framed, wired, and ready to hang.

Artist Statement (optional)

When you submit your artwork, you can provide a brief statement (200 words or less) to share what inspired your work and what creating it meant to you. If suitable, your statement will be displayed with your artwork. This is a great way for you to connect with your viewers.

Sales

The organizers of the show will collect the sale price for any works sold. Sales tax will not be added to the sale price and must be included in the price if you are required to pay sales tax. Checks collected will be made payable to the seller. The seller agrees to make a tax-deductible donation of 30% of the sale price to the Hillsborough Reformed Church. Artwork that is sold cannot be removed until the end of the show.
