THE WAY WE LIVE

Romans 12:9-13

The Gospel doesn't just change what we believe- it transforms how we _____.

Let "love" be genuine... without _____.

Genuine love is authentic, _____, and truth-rooted. --1 John 3:18

Without genuine love, our morality becomes _____, our community becomes a _____, and our service becomes _____.

Recognize sin for what it is... a _____ force opposing God and _____ lives.

In our homes, churches, and communities, we must be people of _____ clarity.

In Christ... We are _____.

We are family, not because we are similar or because we always agree, but because we share the same _____. --John 13:35

To _____ someone is to recognize their worth as one created in God's image, redeemed by Christ, and indwelt by the Spirit.

A culture of honor creates space for _____ community.

Our service isn't ultimately for human _____ or personal _____... It's for Christ, who gave Himself for us.

Paul gives three short _____ forming a rhythm for Christian living: rejoice, be patient, pray.

Our hope in Christ produces _____, even in difficult circumstances.

We don't wait for opportunities to come to us... we _____ for them.

Does this passage describe the way you live?
