We ask that you continue to pray with us, that the seeds that were planted this week will continue to grow and produce fruit. We are truly thankful for your support!

Who are the outsiders in our churches and congregations today? What labels to we apply that have created division, and promoted hostility that, because of Jesus and the cross, should not exist? 2. How might rehearsing our past condition remind us of the joy within our current hope? 3. How does the work of Jesus create the conditions needed for true and lasting peace? How does this peace work between people and God, and how does it work between different people groups? Where does hostility or threats to this peace still exist within the broader church? 4. Discuss the reach of the Church globally, historically, and spiritually. In what ways can we witness the Church transcending geographic boundaries, and boundaries of time. How do the voices of saints from the past still motivate, inspire, and encourage us today? What supernatural and spiritual dynamics are at work in all these realities? 5.
