Provision (7-8)

Acts 19:34

Pattern (9-13)

Compare and contrast the account of the Pharisee and the Publican in Luke 18:9-14 to the posture of the hypocrite in verses 5-6 of Jesus' instruction on prayer. How are the Pharisee and hypocrite alike?</li> <li>2. How might we be guilty of many words and empty phrases in our prayers of today? (vss. 7-8)</li> <li>3. As you breakdown the varying components of the Lord's prayer (vss. 9-13), discuss the components that are directed towards God, and the parts that are directed towards our needs. What is accomplished by keeping the beginning of our prayers focused on God?</li> <li>4. In our temptations and our testing, we are to pray for deliverance from the evil one (vs. 13). How can/does Satan use temptation and testing to lure the children of God away from their Father, and to distress, damage, and destroy relationships with one another?</li> <li>5. In verse 12, then again in verses 14-15, Jesus talks about forgiveness. Why is it so important for the children of God to extend forgiveness and receive forgiveness? How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches?</li> <li>4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?</li> <li>5.
