How might our lives look in light of these realities?

The 1st Corinthians Question: How do we live as disciples of Jesus and function together as his Church in an overwhelmingly unbelieving world?

To live as effective disciples in an overwhelmingly unbelieving world, we must aim our hearts, minds, and passions on the love of God, and love of neighbor, fleeing from and giving up the sexual sin that is so openly celebrated and embraced in our world.

Next Week: 1 Corinthians 7:1-7

- Parents, please be aware that for the next two weeks, our sermons will be in 1 Corinthians 6, which covers topics of a sensitive nature.

How did the people of God in Corinth demonstrate that their freedom in Christ had become an excuse for their participation in sexual sin? (vss. 12-13). 2. How does Paul answer the people's indifference towards sexual sin. What might we learn from Paul's response? How might we follow in Paul's example when talking to other believers who might share a cavalier attitude regarding sexual sin? 3. What does it mean that we are joined together with Christ? How should this reality motivate us to flee from sexual immorality? 4. Paul identifies a difference between sexual sin and every other sin. What is that difference? Discuss how sinning against our own bodies prohibits us from fulfilling the command we have been given to love our neighbors as ourselves. 5. In verses 19-20 Paul reveals two core purposes related to the proper use of our physical bodies. What are we to be doing with our physical bodies while here on earth? Questions towards Spiritual Growth & Discipleship: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How might Jesus be using you to draw those that do not know him unto himself? 5.
