Questi	ons for Reflection & Discussion:
	Identify and discuss various tones and reflections from the book of Genesis that appear in the first two chapters of Exodus. How did Exodus pick up and carry forward where Genesis left off?
2.	Consider the three primary populations in Exodus 1-2. How do our personal and corporate lives at time reflect the patterns of the Pharaoh? How do our behaviors and attitudes sometimes image those of the Hebrews? And what about Moses; How do our lives sometimes reflect the position he was in?	Prayer
3.	What might the faithfulness demonstrated by Moses' parents look like today, as we like they, live as aliens and sojourners in this world?	Requests Family
4.	Who is the most surprising character to you in these first two chapters, and why? What about his/her behavior is striking to you?
5.	Reflect together on Exodus 2:23-25. Underline or highlight the verbs that pertain to the people, and then the verbs that pertain to God. What is comforting and hopeful? How might these verses inspire you	Church to continue forward, even through painful and difficult seasons of life?	Community
