Planning With Purpose

Sundays, Jan. 9-23, 10:30 AM, Auditorium

Everyone asks three fundamental questions about money: who owns it, how much is enough, and is the next steward chosen and prepared? As you plan your life, you must decide how to steward your finances. This seminar will direct you how to ask and answer the right questions when it comes to using money as a tool, a test, and a testimony.

How can we live as disciples of Jesus and function together as his church in an overwhelmingly unbelieving world?

As we pursue love, God uses our gifts to build up our faith community. Speaking words of encouragement and consolation, we reveal, inform, and teach God's truth in a way that motivates us to live peaceably and prepared in the world God has planted us in.

Where does Paul locate the ultimate goal for the sharing of our spiritual gifts? (vss. 3, 5b, 12b). 4. How might a local congregation be able to identify that they are practicing their spiritual gifts in life-giving, upbuilding way? 5. Discuss Paul’s distinction of the instruments (vss. 7-8).
