1 Corinthians: Love Builds Up

To Die is Gain

1 Corinthians 15:29-34

Pastor Chris Lenhart – March 6, 2022

Introduction

Supporting Scripture

1 Cor. 1-15:28
1 Cor. 13

Life in the Resurrected Community (29-34)

Acts 18:12-17
Php. 1:20-26
Acts 19:23-29
Isaiah 22:13
1 Cor. 15:12

How might we live as disciples of Jesus and function together as his church in an overwhelmingly unbelieving world?

Proclaiming the resurrected Messiah, we lay down our lives for one another. Living with great purpose and hope, our words and actions testify to our current and future resurrection.

Next Week: 1 Cor. 15:35-49

Go over prayer requests together. Read the Text -read the text together. (1 Cor. 15:29-34) Discussion Guiding Questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Stepping back and looking at the passage as a whole, what were some ways that belief in the resurrection oriented and prioritized Paul's ministry? 2. Who or what were some of the nearest dangers to the Corinthian congregation? 3. In what ways did Paul demonstrate his willingness to die or lay down his life for the sake of the Church? 4. Paul contended with many different leaders as he worked to establish the Church throughout the ancient near eastern world. Revisit Acts 18:12-17 and Acts 19:23-29. What character qualities were required of Paul to persevere in his ministry in the face of such opposition? 5. Discuss together ways that our shared affirmation of and belief in the resurrection animates and motivates the attitudes, behaviors, and postures of our faith community at CMBC. What kind of qualities should shine in a community filled with the life-giving hope of our current and future resurrection? Questions towards Spiritual Growth & Discipleship: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How does this text challenge you to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are you motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating you apply some of the principles from this passage to your family, career, community, or church? 4. How might Jesus be using you to draw those that do not know him, unto himself? 5. How will you pray for each other between now and next time you meet? 	Supporting Scripture 1 Cor. 1-15:28 1 Cor. 13 Acts 18:12-17 Php. 1:20-26 Acts 19:23-29 Isaiah 22:13 1 Cor. 15:12 Prayer Requests Family Church Community Career/Friends Other

10 Ways to Pray for the Crisis in Ukraine

1. Pray that God's name would be magnified, and that through this crisis he would make himself known to many.
2. Pray for peace, and that those who participate in injustice would repent and turn to God.
3. Pray for strength and perseverance, protection and provision for the Ukrainian people, their families, and their loved ones.
4. Pray for the Ukrainian Church, that they would shine as salt and light, that their testimony would be that of unshakable courage and resilience.
5. Pray for the Ukrainian Army, that they would be able to adequately defend, protect, and uphold their country.
6. Pray for Ukrainians scattered throughout the world and the Ukrainian Church in America, that they would find comfort and refuge as their hearts break for their people and country.
7. Pray for the enemies of Ukraine and those who desire to take, conquer, invade, and destroy. Pray that there would be conviction and repentance, a turning from their evil, a thwarting of their plans.
8. Pray for those Russians who are peacefully yet actively attempting to subvert their government leaders who are intending to do evil. We have seen peaceful anti-war protests within Russia and have also heard reports of Russian soldiers who are refusing to fight.
9. Pray for the Christian Church in Russia, that they would not be overcome by evil, but rather, they would overcome evil by doing good.
10. Pray for our country men and women, along with all global workers for the gospel, who are serving in Ukraine and Russia.
