Exodus: Redeemed, Reformed, Renewed

Deliverance

Exodus 11-12

Pastor Chris Lenhart - February 12, 2023

T dottor Cririo Ecririar t
Introduction:		Supporting Scripture Genesis Ex. 1-10 Hab. 3:2
Instruct the People (11:1-10)		Ex. 8:10, 22, 9:14, 29; 10:2; 11:7
Tell the Congregation (12:1-28)		Ex. 6:2, 6-8; 7:5,17; 8:22; 10:2; 12:12; 14:4, 18
Get up, get out, Go! (29-42)
Who can participate? (43-51)		Jn. 19:36
	Next Week: Exodus 13-14 "Deliverance"
1

Follow along with today's sermon using your smartphone. Download the "CMBC" app (search for "Calvary Monument" in your app store) and click on "Sundays" at the bottom of the screen.

Pext Steps: Home Group Study and/or Personal Discipleship Guide Supporting Get together as a family or with a friend or group of friends this week! Start with Prayer -ask Jesus to guide our time together. Go over prayer requests together. Read the Text -Exodus 11-12 (or portions of it). 1. When confronted with portions of scripture that are difficult as it relates to our overall understanding of God, what are some helpful tips or reminders that you hold on to? Why is important for us to take God at his word, and be willing to live within the tensions of our faith? How does this demonstrate a 'walking by faith' posture? And, what might this humility communicate to those who have not yet believed about our overall confidence in God? 2. Compare and contrast the 10 th plague with the death of Jesus, the firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it different? 3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? 4. In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Ouestions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? 4. How might Jesus be motivating us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself? 5. How can we pray for each other between now and next time?	Exodus: Redeemed , Reformed, Renewed
Get together as a family or with a friend or group of friends this week! Start with Prayer -ask Jesus to guide our time together. Go over prayer requests together. Read the Text -Exodus 11-12 (or portions of it). Questions for Reflection & Discussion: 1. When confronted with portions of scripture that are difficult as it relates to our overall understanding of God, what are some helpful tips or reminders that you hold on to? Why is important for us to take God at his word, and be willing to live within the tensions of our faith? How does this demonstrate a "walking by faith" posture? And, what might this humility communicate to those who have not yet believed about our overall confidence in God? 2. Compare and contrast the 10" plague with the death of Jesus, the firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it different? 3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? 4. In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Ouestions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?		Ex. 11-12
Get together as a family or with a friend or group of friends this week! Start with Prayer - ask Jesus to guide our time together. Go over prayer requests together. Read the Text - Exodus 11-12 (or portions of it). Questions for Reflection & Discussion: 1. When confronted with portions of scripture that are difficult as it relates to our overall understanding of God, what are some helpful tips or reminders that you hold on to? Why is important for us to take God at his word, and be willing to live within the tensions of our faith? How does this demonstrate a "walking by faith" posture? And, what might this humility communicate to those who have not yet believed about our overall confidence in God? 2. Compare and contrast the 10 th plague with the death of Jesus, the firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it different? 3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? 4. In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Questions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?
requests together. Read the Text - Exodus 11-12 (or portions of it). Questions for Reflection & Discussion: 1. When confronted with portions of scripture that are difficult as it relates to our overall understanding of God, what are some helpful tips or reminders that you hold on to? Why is important for us to take God at his word, and be willing to live within the tensions of our faith? How does this demonstrate a "walking by faith" posture? And, what might this humility communicate to those who have not yet believed about our overall confidence in God? 2. Compare and contrast the 10th plague with the death of Jesus, the firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it different? 3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? 4. In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Questions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?		Scripture
Read the Text - Exodus 11-12 (or portions of it). Questions for Reflection & Discussion: 1. When confronted with portions of scripture that are difficult as it relates to our overall understanding of God, what are some helpful tips or reminders that you hold on to? Why is important for us to take God at his word, and be willing to live within the tensions of our faith? How does this demonstrate a "walking by faith" posture? And, what might this humility communicate to those who have not yet believed about our overall confidence in God? 2. Compare and contrast the 10 th plague with the death of Jesus, the firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it different? 3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? 4. In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Questions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?		Hab. 3:2
 Questions for Reflection & Discussion: When confronted with portions of scripture that are difficult as it relates to our overall understanding of God, what are some helpful tips or reminders that you hold on to? Why is important for us to take God at his word, and be willing to live within the tensions of our faith? How does this demonstrate a "walking by faith" posture? And, what might this humility communicate to those who have not yet believed about our overall confidence in God? Compare and contrast the 10th plague with the death of Jesus, the firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it different? Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Questions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? Other 	Read the Text - Exodus 11-12 (or portions of it).	9:14, 29; 10:2;
firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it different? 3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? 4. In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Ouestions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? Career/Friends Career/Friends Career/Friends Other 4. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? Other	1. When confronted with portions of scripture that are difficult as it relates to our overall understanding of God, what are some helpful tips or reminders that you hold on to? Why is important for us to take God at his word, and be willing to live within the tensions of our faith? How does this demonstrate a "walking by faith" posture? And, what might this humility communicate to those who have not yet believed	Ex. 6:2, 6-8; 7:5,17; 8:22; 10:2; 12:12; 14:4, 18
 3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy? 4. In what ways does God prepare and make provisions for his people in the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Questions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? Career/Friends Career/Friends Abow might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?	firstborn of all creation. In what ways does this event pull our imaginations toward Jesus' sacrificial death? In what ways is it
the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion of gentiles, give us a glimpse of God's broader salvation purposes? What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Ouestions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?	3. Where are we able to see images of God's mercy even within this devastating and traumatic event? In his wrath, how is God remembering mercy?	Family
What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is he impressing upon his people? Ouestions guiding Spiritual Formation & Application: 1. How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?	the wilderness? 5. How does God make a way for all peoples, regardless of national ethnicity, to participate in the Passover feast? How does the inclusion	Church
 How does this text challenge us to grow in a greater love for God? How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others? How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself? 	What qualities of God are displayed in this act? And, what qualities is	Community
 3. How might Jesus be motivating us to apply some of the principles from this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? Other 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself? 		Career/Friends this passage to our families, careers, communities, or churches? Other 4. How might Jesus be using us to draw those that do not know him, unto himself?	2. How are we motivated to grow in a greater love for others?
himself?		Other
5. How can we pray for each other between now and next time?
\mathbf{I}	5. How can we pray for each other between now and next time?	