Posture (31-11:1)

Rom. 12:18

How might we live as disciples of Jesus and function together as his church in an overwhelmingly unbelieving world?

With a heart motivated by love, we desire to glorify God through building one another up. Seeking the good of the other, we strive to bring no offense, trusting that Jesus is working through the testimony of our lives to draw men and women unto himself that they might be saved.

In verses 23-24, Paul reveals the lifestyle patterns, attitudes, and behaviors that he is living out and desiring the Church to live out. What are the words that he uses, and how can we live out these ideals in community with one another? 2. Talk about Paul's use of Psalm 24:1 in verse 26. Line it up with his communication of a similar principle to Timothy in 1 Tim. 4:3-5. How does Paul view meat sacrificed to idols? 3. In verses 27-28 Paul anticipates that believers may find themselves invited over for dinner with an unbelieving friend. In this, what kind of relationships does Paul presume Christians in Corinth will be building with their unbelieving neighbors? How can you strengthen and build relationships with your unbelieving friends, family, and neighbors? 4. In verses 31-33 Paul is drawing his conclusions that summarize much of his thoughts in this portion of his letter (8-11:1). Identify the principles that are governing the behaviors and attitudes of Christians living in community with one another. 5. In what ways might we ensure that our knowledge is tethered to and guided by love, and that our rights and freedoms are tethered to and guided by love? What are some ways that tethering our knowledge and freedoms to love, glorify God and build one another up? Questions towards Spiritual Growth & Discipleship: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How does this text challenge you to grow in a greater love for God? 2. How are you motivated to grow in a greater love for others? 3. How might Jesus be using you to draw those that do not know him, unto himself? 5.
