ALL SAINTS BY-THE-SEA

Shiya'hwt • SYOWT • Ganges Village

We gather across this island, from Stu'lan and Xwaaqw'um, from TÁLEN and WENÁ,NEĆ.

Generations of HUL'Q'UM'NUM' and SENĆOTEN-speaking Coast Salish people have made this their home from time immemorial, and their encounter with the Creator in this place goes before our own.

For which of you,
intending to build a tower,
does not first sit down
and estimate the cost?

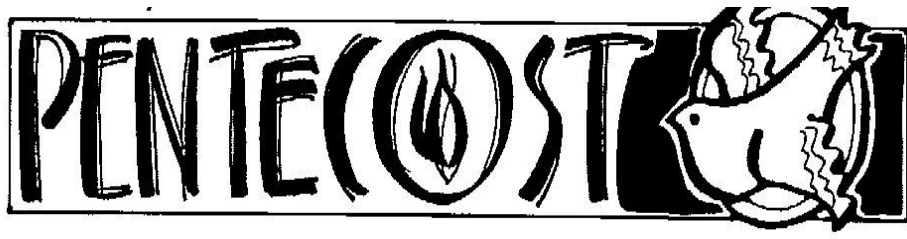

L U K E 1 4 : 2 8

Rector: The Rev. Juli Mallett

Guest Organist: Ron Dyck

All are welcome.

The sound of children is always welcome in worship.
There is a nursery with toys on the garden side of the sanctuary.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Processional Hymn 445: God the Creator

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

And also with you.

In this time and place, we gather on the ancestral territories of SENĆOŦEN and HUL'Q'UMI'NUM'-speaking Coast Salish peoples.

From many places and peoples we come to this house in prayer.

In this time and place, we are not alone,
for we meet in the presence of the living God.

We meet in the presence of the living God.

In this time and place, we are not alone,
for the Risen Jesus stands in our midst.

In our Community —

• SCOTTISH DANCING returns to All Saints on September 15th!
Please come & join the festivities each Monday night in the Upper Hall beginning at 6:00pm.

• Canadian surgeon Dr. Deirde Nunan will be speaking at All Saints' about her experiences working in Gaza at an event in the Upper Hall on Tuesday, Sept 16th from 1:30—3:30pm.

Many of us have questions about what the experience on-the-ground in Gaza is like, and here is an opportunity for us to hear a first-person account from a healthcare worker. Dr. Nunan has been an in-demand speaker throughout the region & has spoken to CBC Radio about what Gazans need from people around the world.

Organized by islanders Phil Vernon & Maggie Ziegler, this by-donation event may be of interest to the parish.

• Salt Spring Arts' Showcase Exhibition | Mahon Hall Stage

Shakiba Sattar, Beyond the Border

My journey as an artist has been one of movement across lands, cultures, and realities. I was born in Iran and now create in Canada, living between two worlds, each of which shapes my identity and art. "Beyond Borders" reflects this borderland space, where the self is torn between memories of home and the search for freedom.

My portrait paintings depict fragmented identities, ambiguous emotions, and the tension between belonging and forgetting. Through each brushstroke, I navigate the unseen lines that separate and connect us, challenging the physical and psychological boundaries that define our existence. Through abstract and surreal portraits, I explore themes of identity, repression and transformation. Faces fade, features distort, but essence remains – a symbol of the resilience of those who refuse to disappear.

Being is about presence in a world that often seeks to erase it, about claiming space through art when society dictates otherwise. My work serves as a reminder: I am here, I exist, and so do my stories.

Collect of the Day

BAS p. 378

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

A Reading from Jeremiah 18. 1-11

Psalms 139. 1-5, 12-17

- 1 Lord, you have searched me out * and known me.
- 2 You know my sitting down and my rising up; *
you discern my thoughts from afar.
- 3 You trace my journeys and my resting-places *
and are acquainted with all my ways.
- 4 Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, *
but you, O Lord, know it altogether.
- 5 You press upon me behind and before *
and lay your hand upon me.
- 12 Darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day; *
darkness and light to you are both alike.
- 13 For you yourself created my inmost parts; *
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
- 14 I will thank you because I am marvellously made; *
your works are wonderful, and I know it well.
- 15 My body was not hidden from you, *
while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.
- 16 Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; *
all of them were written in your book;
they were fashioned day by day, *
when as yet there was none of them.
- 17 How deep I find your thoughts, O God! *
how great is the sum of them!
