Serving Bolivia

September 2025

Who's The Leader:

We have mentioned often, in our last few prayer letters, to pray for the political and economic situation in Bolivia and how many are suffering. We have also asked for prayer over and over for the upcoming elections and how it could affect the future of Bolivia. The presidential elections took place this past month, which is considered a first round that normally reduces the candidates down to the top two. The country will now have a second runoff on October 19th that will determine who will be the next president of Bolivia. Our prayer in all this has been that first the Lord's will be done and secondly that there be a change in government, due to the anti-God and anti-church position. Praise the Lord it appears that both of the top two candidates are not part of the extreme left socialist/communist position. One of the candidates is considered a moderate and the other would be more right or conservative leaning. We continue to pray that things will get better both economically and for the church. We are trusting in the Lord and that His will be done.

This Means War:

There is no doubt that we all face great spiritual battles daily and even though we will have the final victory, many probably walk in defeat on a daily basis. This can be seen clearly when serving the Lord on the mission field. We are definitely in the enemy's territory and he fights with everything to maintain control. This is why I am excited to have the opportunity to teach a Spiritual Warfare class to the students and the Vision School of Missions this semester. We will be looking at the Reality of the battle, knowing our enemies (Devil, World, Flesh), and tools that can be used to win the daily battles in our lives. It is truly amazing how many tools or weapons that are in the Bible that can really help us have the victory. With everything from the Word of God, humility, wisdom, prayer, the Amour of God, and more we can be well prepared and ready to fight.

Investing in the Future:

One of the great opportunities that we have, being the Dean of Students and a teacher at the Vision School of Missions, is to invest in the lives of future missionaries. Not only in class but also in spending time with them. Several activities have been planned with the students and also I will be meeting with the guy students ever other week or so to have a time of fellowship and teaching. The students and I will be looking at "Lesson's for Young Preachers" in the book of Timothy. I really look forward to have this time to invest in the lives of these men and woman and pray for these future missionaries.

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for the upcoming presidential elections this October.
2. Pray for the great need for missionaries around the world.
3. Pray for the paper work that we are doing for three of our churches.
4. Pray for us as we will be traveling more the next two months for mission's conferences.
