

Week 1: A Question About Desire

Series: The Questions Jesus Asked

Key Verses: Mark 10:46-52

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: This is the story of Jesus' healing of blind Bartimaeus. It begins with Jesus asking what seems to be an obvious question, "What do you want me to do for you?" But it opens a wonderful opportunity for some sober self-reflection as we consider the implications of the question both for Bartimaeus and for us. This is the 1st week of an eight week series called The Questions Jesus Asked.

Background: Verses 33-34: Jesus was going to Jerusalem to die, and he knew it. He tries to tell his disciples, but they don't understand.

The _____ - A blind beggar named Bartimaeus began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

- Son of David was a common title for the Messiah.
- Application: Perhaps the most important thing to remember when you pray is to Whom you are praying. Jesus is the Messiah, the Savior of the World.

The _____ - Those around Jesus rebuked the man for his rude interruption.

The _____ - Those around Jesus rebuked the man for his rude interruption.

- We don't know if it was Jesus' disciples who rebuked the man or someone else, but we do know they had done this sort of thing before.
- Read: Mark 10:13
- On both occasions Jesus' anger flares at the rebukers.
- What do you think that means; come with innocence and purity?

The _____ : Jesus asks the man, "What do you want me to do for you?"

- What would you ask for?

The _____ : The blind man responded in faith, "Rabbi, I want to see."

- Read: Revelation 3:14–17 & John 9:39–41
- The ones who are truly blind are the ones who think they have it all together.
- Bartimaeus' simple childlike question opened him to all the possibilities of God's power.
- And Jesus said his childlike faith healed him.
