

Fall in love with the movies!

Come enjoy a matinee with Pastor Per! We'll meet in the lounge at noon every Thursday in October to watch a movie together and then talk about it! Bring something for lunch and we'll provide the popcorn and lemonade!

Thelma* (2024, PG-13)

Directed by Josh Margolin

When a 93-year-old grandmother gets swindled by a phone scam, she sets out, with a little help from her friends, to get her money—and her dignity—back. With a stellar performance from June Squibb, this critically adored comedy-thriller is not to be missed!

Babette's Feast* (1987, G)

Directed by Gabriel Axel

This Oscar-winning classic tells the story of a French refugee who is brought to a small Danish town to serve as family cook to the late pastor's daughters. Through her presence—and cooking—Babette awakens the hearts and minds of this strict religious community.

The Mitchells Vs. The Machines* (2021, PG)

Directed by Mike Rianda & Jeff Rowe

A quirky, dysfunctional family's road trip is upended when they find themselves in the middle of the robot apocalypse and suddenly become humanity's unlikely last hope. Rich in satire, heart, and hope—this animated adventure is a surprising treat for all ages!

Best of Enemies* (2015, R)

Directed by Robert Gordon & Morgan Neville

Documenting the legendary series of nationally televised debates between Gore Vidal and William F. Buckley, Jr. during the notoriously tumultuous election cycle of 1968, this film challenges us to ponder the lasting effects of TV on political discourse in the U.S.

Little Shop of Horrors* (1986, PG-13)

Directed by Frank Oz

A nebbish amateur florist strikes gold when he finds a mysterious new plant. Only thing is, it needs more than just the spot-light—it's out for blood! Celebrate Halloween with this cult musical hit starring Rick Moranis and featuring Steve Martin.
