How Does God Reveal Himself?

One of the most important questions a person can ask is: How does God make Himself known to us? If we cannot know God, we can't follow Him. Thankfully, the Bible shows us that God has revealed Himself in clear and powerful ways.

One of those ways is through creation. Paul writes, "For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived...in the things that have been made" (Romans 1:20). The beauty of a sunrise, the order of the seasons, and the vastness of the heavens all declare the greatness of our Creator. Nature points us toward God, leaving us without excuse.

Another, is through His Word. While creation shows us God's power, only His Word reveals His will. Scripture tells us what God desires for us and how we can be saved. "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness" (2 Timothy 3:16). Through Scripture, we learn who God is, what He has done, and how He calls us to live.

God also reveals Himself through His Son. God's greatest revelation came in Jesus Christ. "No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known" (John 1:18). Jesus is the perfect image of God (Colossians 1:15), showing us God's love, compassion, holiness, and justice. By looking to Jesus, we see the heart of God revealed in human form.

Finally, God reveals Himself through the lives of His people. When Christians walk in the light and reflect Christ's character, others can see God's presence at work. Jesus said, "By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (John 13:35).

God has not left Himself hidden. He has revealed Himself in creation, in Scripture, in His Son, and through the church. The question is not whether God has made Himself known, but whether we will listen, believe, and respond to His revelation.

"Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you." (James 4:8)
