

Week 3: A Question about Vision

Series: The Questions Jesus Asked

Key Verses: Mark 8:22–25, Matthew 9:35–38

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: In Mark 8:22-25 Jesus heals a blind man at Bethsaida by making mud and putting it on his eyes. Then the question, “Do you see anything?” The man’s full restoration required a second touch from Jesus. The incident reminds us of how much healing we need to see the world as Jesus does.

Mark 8:22-25 is one of several incidents in the Gospels of Jesus healing blindness. On this occasion, Jesus took the man outside the village, away from the crowd, and touched the man’s eyes. Then comes the question, “Do you see anything?”

This incident is important because it speaks to a particular object of our impaired vision: people.

How did Jesus respond to the people he encountered every day?

1. Jesus responded by _____ them.
2. Jesus responded by focusing his _____ on them.
3. Jesus responded by having _____ on them.
4. Jesus responded by instructing his _____ to Pray.

Question: Do you care enough for people who don’t yet know Jesus to at least pray for them?

Seven steps to take to be ready when God opens up opportunities for us to experience the life-changing adventure of sharing the Good News of the Kingdom of God with others.

1. Ask God to increase your love for people who are still on their way back home to God.
2. Pray consistently for them.
3. Build bridges of friendship with people, with no strings attached.
4. Don't just share your faith—show it.
5. Be ready to tell others your story.
6. Be prepared to explain how they can experience God's love.
7. Take some risks to reach out to people with the Good News of God's love.

We need a second (or third, or fourth) touch from Jesus in order to see as he sees.
