The Gradual Psalm: 92. 1-4

It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night, to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre. The Rector's Corner

On August 6, 1993, Archbishop and Primate Michael Peers delivered an apology to the Sacred Circle (then called the National Native Convocation) in Minaki, Ontario, for the Anglican Church of Canada's role in residential schools. The apology came after three days of emotional testimonies from residential school survivors, while a lengthy downpour of rain took place outside at the gathering.

The Primate said, "I accept, and I confess before God and you, our failures in the residential schools. We failed you. We failed ourselves. We failed God. I am sorry, more than I can say, that we were part of a system which took you and your children from home and family.

I am sorry, more than I can say, that we tried to remake you in our image, taking from you your language and the signs of your identity. I am sorry, more than I can say, that in our schools so many were abused physically, sexually, culturally and emotionally. ...On behalf of the Anglican Church of Canada, I present our apology.

I know how often you have heard words which have been empty because they have not been accompanied by actions. I pledge to you my best efforts, and the efforts of our church at the national level, to walk with you along the path of God's healing.

Some described the three days as a time enveloped in darkness—as stories of cultural loss, abuse, and the stripping away of language, spirituality, and heritage dominated the gathering. Yet after the Primate's apology, clouds parted, and sunlight returned. The next day, Indigenous Elder Vi Smith responded on behalf of survivors and Elders at the National Native Convocation, in acknowledgment and acceptance of the Primate's words.

Please note the change in time for the Wednesday afternoon Bible Study at St. James. We will begin to meet at 1:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome!

Two Weeks of Thanksgiving:

The next two Sundays are designated in some parishes for thanksgiving: National Thanksgiving – when we focus on our blessings as a nation; and Harvest Thanksgiving – when we remember how the Lord has provided us once again with food. On National Thanksgiving, in addition to the peace and freedoms we enjoy as Canadians, we may humbly pause to reflect upon the abundance of water, minerals, and lumber resources that we have received from God. And then, we may pray how to be good stewards of them. On Harvest Thanksgiving, the 'Form of Thanksgiving for the Blessings of the Harvest' (pages 617-619, Book of Common Prayer) not only speaks of fruits and vegetables, but also of the spiritual harvest when the Lord Jesus returns as our King and Judge. "O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious; because His mercy endures forever." (Psalm 118.1)

The Feast of St. Michael and All Angels will be celebrated with the Holy Eucharist a day late – at 5:00 p.m. on Sept. 30th in St. George's Chapel. ('Angel' = God's messenger/ministering spirit)

The Banns of Marriage are published between Kelly VanBuskirk of this parish and Allison Pelly of the Cathedral Parish of St. Ninian's in Antigonish, N.S. If any of you know cause or just impediment why these two persons may not be joined together in holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the first time of asking.

Parish Visitors: there are approximately 60 shut-ins in the Parish of the Six Saints. If you would be willing/available to visit one or two of these people, please call or email the Parish Office. Thank you!
