Dear North Ridge Family,

Thank you all for being wonderful people. Just wanted you to know that I am now worshipping at the Blodgett congregation.

My choice, after 51 years with the North Ridge family, is primarily my health. North Ridge is in my heart and that will not change.

God is good and we are blessed.

*Love to all,
Margaret Giddens*

My One And Only

By Michael Orr

My one and only,
All I owned I have traded,
For a pearl and a promise,
Never blemished nor faded.

Though they sparkle around me,
Not a jewel can compare,
To the awe-stirring wonder,
From the treasure I wear.

My one and only,
Buried treasure I keep,
Not in soil or floorboard,
But where deep calls to deep.

For the price of the purchase,
Was already paid,
In cross and in crimson,
Where redemption was made.

My one and only,
Sweeping floor for the lost,
One of ten you still sought me,
Deemed me worth what it cost.

Straying lamb, reckless child,
Scanned horizon to find,
Sought me out, called me priceless,
Though I left you behind.

My one and only,
In life and in death,
You hold fast in my longing,
You command every breath.

May your joy reach within me,
May you banish my lonely,
For You, Father, Savior,
Are my true one and only.
