Participating in Church Life

Would you like to get more involved in the life of Grandview this season? If you are interested in changing things up by joining a home group, helping out more on Sundays, or getting involved with one of our ministries, please take a moment and complete this form.

Note: This is for new signups only! No need to fill it out if you are already participating and wish to continue doing so.

Especially needed is one or two more once-per-month volunteers for the CLEAN Break program on Wednesday mornings.

ESG Bottle Drive

Save your empty refundable beverage containers for the Eastside Story Guild Bottle Drive fundraiser! There is a bin in the narthex where you can bring your empties. Until October 12, we'd love to take all the craft beer cans, oat milk tetrapaks, and kombucha bottles you can bring our way!

You can bring your empties to any Return-It Express Depot in BC and the funds will go directly to ESG. Here's how:

- Place all your unsorted containers in sealed, clear or transparent bags up to 90-litre capacity. No sorting or counting necessary.
- Go to a Return-It Depot and find the Express kiosk located on site. Use 604-203-1433 to log in.
- Print your labels, label your bags. Each bag needs a label.
- Scan the labels in your bags with the scanner (if available) at the Express kiosk.
- That's It! Return-It will sort and count the containers, and ESG will be credited with your deposit refund.

You can also still bring your empties to the church building on September 28, October 5, 12. We will have clear bags available for those able to go to Return-It on their own.

Thank you for all the ways you help make ESG possible!

ISO: Carpool?

For North Burnaby residents: Liam is looking for a carpool ride to Grandview Sunday mornings. Would you be able to help? Please contact Monica.

Fidgets looking to return home!

There was a collection of octopus fidgets on the narthex art shelf that has been slowly dwindling over the past few months until - now there are none! If one of these fidgets potentially came home with your child, could you please take a look and, if found, bring it back to the church building at your earliest convenience. Thank you :)

CABF conference – October 26-29

Now is the time to sign-up for the CABF October conference. This is a great opportunity to get to know people in this new church association we are considering joining. If you can't make the whole conference save the date for the October 27 evening info discussion on CABF and jazz concert in the lower hall. And if you can help with hospitality volunteering during those days please contact Monica.

FALL 2025

EVERY WEEK:

The Deeper Dive discussion group will study the big story of the Bible, with a focus on hearing the text in its first listeners' Hebrew cultural context. We will listen to a ~45-minute podcast on your own prior to each meeting, then we will read and discuss the Biblical text together at a home near the church.

- Tuesday Evenings, led by Ruth Gill & Becky Buhler.

- Sunday mornings, led by Jake and Jennie Janzen. For parents with littles.

TWICE/MONTH:

- Thursday evenings, led by Malcolm McKinlay. Book Club Blessed Are the Undone. This group is for people who are experiencing a degree of disorientation in their faith. It hopes to provide support and companionship in an honest and authentic environment.

- Thursday evenings, led by Rosemary Toye.

- Saturday mornings, led by Caitlin Adam. Gathering for discussion, community, and goodness. Format TBD by the group.

MONTHLY:

- Wednesday evenings, led by Monica McKinlay. Lectio Divina. We will meet at the Co:Here building for a contemplative practice of sharing our consolations and desolations as well as reading a short biblical text, listening in silence, and sharing together.
