Does God Care About Me?

Life can sometimes leave us wondering if God really cares. When prayers seem unanswered, when pain lingers, or when struggles feel overwhelming, we may ask, "Does God care about me?"

The Bible answers this question with a resounding yes. Peter tells us plainly: "Cast all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you" (1 Peter 5:7). Notice that the care of God is not general or distant—it is personal. He invites us to bring all our worries to Him, not just the big ones.

Jesus assures us of God's intimate concern: "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows" (Luke 12:6–7). If God knows and cares for the smallest creatures, how much more does He care for His children?

God's care is not only emotional, it is active. He loved us so deeply that He sent His Son to die for us (John 3:16). He provides for our daily needs (Matthew 6:31–33). He promises never to leave nor forsake us (Hebrews 13:5). Even in our darkest valleys, He is with us (Psalm 23:4).

So the next time you are tempted to wonder if God cares, remember the cross. Remember His promises. Remember His presence. The truth is unshakable: Yes, God cares for you—deeply, personally, and eternally. "The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit." (Psalm
