Welcome to the Cathedral

Whether today is your first time with us, or if this is your spiritual home, we welcome you to the Cathedral. We're glad that you're here today.

We envision a radically inclusive, restlessly inquisitive, intentional, and inspired Cathedral. This is a place that is called to lead and to serve, in communion and community, with healing, reconciliation, and love, living out the Christian mission. Together, we look to the power of Christ for the transformation of each person, this city of Vancouver, and the world.

We recognize our history and traditions while seeking renewal and growth in spiritual depth and size. Curious and adaptable, this chorus has room for every voice — especially yours.

To learn more about the many ministries and opportunities for service in this community, please visit our website: www.thecathedral.ca. Following our worship service, please join us for coffee hour on the plaza right outside the Burrard St. doors, weather permitting.

Thank you for joining us today. Your presence enriches our life together.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

The Very Rev. Christopher A. Pappas, Ph.D., D.Min.
Dean & Rector

The Sermon

The Reverend Dr. Rob James

A period of silent reflection follows the sermon.

The Apostles' Creed

Deacon Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and God's creation.

Silence may be kept.

All God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart, and we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We have wounded your creation by waste, neglect, and selfishness. Have mercy upon us, forgive us, and renew us, that we may delight in your will, walk in your ways, and care for the earth you have made. Amen.

Presider Almighty God, who in Jesus Christ has reconciled all things in heaven and earth, forgive you your sins, restore within you the divine image, and renew you in the Spirit to live in justice and peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

All may exchange a sign of peace.

The Celebration of the Eucharist

You may make a gift using the offering plate being passed around at this time or refer to the back page of this bulletin to see other methods. Together with the gifts of bread and wine, we present our gifts at the altar as a sign of thanksgiving to God, from whom all good things come.

The Communion

To receive the consecrated Bread, approach the altar and extend your hands to the minister with palms open. To receive the consecrated Wine, carefully guide the chalice to your lips. For public health, please do not dip the Bread into the Wine. If you do not wish to partake of the common cup, know that you receive the full efficacy of communion with only the Bread. If you do not wish to receive communion, you are invited to receive a blessing by approaching the altar and crossing your arms over your chest. You may also remain in your seat as you feel comfortable. If you are interested in learning about baptism, please contact a member of our clergy. During communion, Healing Prayer is offered for all people in the west alcove. Please respect the confidentiality of the people praying by not entering the alcove during prayer time.

During Communion Factum est silentium Richard Dering (c. 1580-1630)

*There was silence in heaven when the dragon fought with the Archangel Michael.
The voice of thousands of thousands was heard saying: salvation, honour and power be to almighty God. Alleluia.*

The Prayer after Communion

Presider Let us pray. God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and with all creation.

All Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you by tending the earth and caring for all your creatures; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Doxology

Presider Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

[Commissioning for lay ministers who will be taking communion to those not able to participate in the Eucharist at the church:]

Presider In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing Holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the body and blood of Christ.

All We who are many are one body, because we share one bread, one cup.]

The Blessing

May God the Creator, who created the world, give you grace to be wise stewards of God's creation.
May God the Son, who redeemed the world, inspire you to go out as labourers in his harvest.
May God the Holy Spirit, who renews the face of the earth, give you joy in serving them and all creation.
And the blessing of God, the Creator of all, the Christ who reconciles all, and the Spirit who renews all, be with you and remain with you always. Amen.

Closing Hymn

Ye Holy Angels Bright

(CP 323)

Dismissal

Deacon Go now to love and serve the Lord, walking gently upon the earth, seeking justice, and rejoicing in all creation. Thanks be to God!

Postlude

Festive Voluntary

Flor Peeters (1903-86)

Eucharistic Prayer 1 (EOW)

Today's Eucharistic Prayer is from Enriching Our Worship, a liturgical supplement of the Episcopal Church that offers expansive, inclusive language and a global vision of God's redeeming work. Chosen to celebrate God's ongoing creation and our call to faithful stewardship, the prayer highlights themes of hope, community, and the transforming power of Christ's love. Its rhythmic, participatory style invites the congregation to enter fully into the mystery of the Eucharist and to rejoice in God's gift of creation and life in all its diversity.
