Let's play a little game. First snuggle up on your pillow. 'I'm going to ring my bell. I want you to wake up, and tell me what this little monkey is doing. X3

Cover your eyes (see no evil,) cover your ears (hear no evil) cover your mouth (speak no evil). (see pictures on page 10)

God has a reward for those of us who follow His rules.

EARS 	Did you know that God sometimes sounds a "wake up" bell in our lives? God wants us to hear the child who cries at school. He speaks to our heart and says, "It is time to wake up and hear what I hear."
EYES 	Some people tend to "sleep in" and fall back to sleep. But God wants us to see the child at school who has no lunch today. God speaks to our heart and says, "Wake up! It's time to see what I see."
MOUTH. 	Some people turn on their radio and sing along so that they don't even hear God's voice anymore. God speaks to our heart and says, "It's time to Wake up! And tell others to help us to make a better world."

That is what happens in our Bible story today.

Jesus told a story about a rich man who wore the finest clothes and lived in luxury. And a beggar named Lazarus who lay outside the rich man's gate. Lazarus was hungry and his body was covered with sores. He was hoping that the rich man might have pity on him and that he might be able to satisfy his hunger with the leftovers from the rich man's table. But every day the rich man passed by Lazarus, He covered his eyes so he could not see a problem, He covered his ears so he could not hear a problem and covered his mouth so he could not speak a word to Lazarus.

The Bible says that Lazarus died and went to heaven.
The rich man also died, but he was not allowed in heaven.
He looked up and saw Lazarus in heaven with Abraham.
He asked Abraham to let Lazarus dip his finger in the holy water and come and touch his lips. But Abraham said, "No."
Then he reminded the rich man how he had enjoyed such good things on earth, but he shared nothing with Lazarus!

Let us pray that we will listen to His voice and follow Him before it is too late.

Repeat after me...Father, may we never be guilty of not listening to you, and saying...
"Later, Lord. Not now Lord !".
Instead, let us rise and shine and follow You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

Lets Sing; Jesus asks us.....

Will you come and follow me If I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know And never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown In you and you in me?

Let's do a Craft!
