Welcome and Introduction (The Rev. Daniel Fournier)

Please stand as you are able.

Opening Hymn:

CP 531 You Who Dwell in the Shelter of the Lord

(tune: On Eagles' Wings)

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Invitation to Confession

Priest: Dear friends,
sometimes our readings are full of good news;
sometimes they abound in hard warnings.
Today we are warned that we need to be attentive
to the opportunities around us to serve others.
It's easy to postpone for another day
the steps we need to take.
Trusting in God's ultimate mercy is only half the story.
Today may be the only time we have to respond.

Let us take a moment and pause,
examining our hearts and minds
as we confess our sins to our merciful God.

Silence is kept.

Confession

All: Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
we have sinned against you,
through our own fault,
in thought, and word, and deed,
and in what we have left undone.
We are heartily sorry,
and repent of all our sins.
For your Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past;
and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on you,
forgive you your sins,
and bring you to everlasting life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Priest: Glory to God in the highest,

All: and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly king,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Collect of the Day

Priest: May God be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

God of Abraham, Moses and the prophets,
your covenant binds us as sisters and brothers:
help us to overcome the scandal of poverty
and the chasm of indifference,
so that we may recognize you in the wounded poor;
through Jesus Christ, the Builder of Bridges.

All: Amen.

Please be seated.

Blessing of the Children

The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING: JEREMIAH 32: 1-3a, 6-15

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

At the end of the reading:

Reader: Word of God, Word of Life.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 91: 1-6, 14-16

Response: I will protect you and bring you to honour.

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High,
abides under the shadow of the Almighty.

He shall say to the Lord,

"You are my refuge and my stronghold,
my God in whom I put my trust." (Response)

He shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter and from the deadly pestilence.

He shall cover you with his pinions,
and you shall find refuge under his wings;
his faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler. (Response)

You shall not be afraid of any terror by night,
nor of the arrow that flies by day;
Of the plague that stalks in the darkness,
nor of the sickness that lays waste at mid-day. (Response)

Because he is bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver him;
I will protect him, because he knows my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;

I am with him in trouble;

I will rescue him and bring him to honour.

With long life will I satisfy him,
and show him my salvation. (Response)

An Affirmation of Faith [from the New Zealand Prayer Book]

Leader: Let us declare our faith in God:

All: You, O God, are supreme and holy.
You create our world and give us life.
Your purpose overarches everything we do.
You have always been with us.
You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous,
good beyond all measure.
You came to us before we came to you.

You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ,
who lived and died and rose again.
You are with us now.
You are God.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.

You are our God. We worship you. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Sitting, standing or kneeling, as is your custom.

Let us pray with confidence as God's holy people.
We pray for the church, for all Christians everywhere,
for all in our parish.

IN THE WORLDWIDE ANGLICAN PRAYER CYCLE,
we pray today for the Province of the Episcopal Church of Sudan, The Most Revd. Ezekiel Kumir Kondo, Primate. Locally we pray for Anna, our Bishop, and for St. Peter, Campbell River, and for their priest, Rev. Stephanie Wood. We also pray for Lutheran Church of the Cross and Pastor Lyndon, and for the Diocese of the Territory of the People, and Bishop Clara Plamondon.

God of mystery and wonder,
we look around at the beauty of this world
and the worlds beyond us,
and sense that you have given each precious thing
its place and a way to sustain itself.
Thank you for the care you hold
for your whole creation.
We also look around at the aching of the world
and sense that many precious things are under threat.
Too many pieces of your creation have fallen out of balance with each other.

Show us how we can help restore that balance and protect what is at risk for the health of your whole creation.

God of all creatures great and small,
All: Make us stewards of what is precious to you.

God of energy and life,
we look around at the peoples of this world and see your image and dignity
in every variety of face and culture.
Thank you for the care you hold for all humankind.
Yet we look around at the people of this world
and see the aching of the hungry and hurting;
we hear the groans of parents whose children die in their arms and feel the tears of children whose parents die too soon.
We know neighbours who are suffering and hear of strangers who can't imagine how to make it through tomorrow.
Awaken our generosity
to offer what healing and hope we can to the lives you cherish
in every neighbourhood and nation.

God of all creatures great and small,
All: Make us stewards of what is precious to you.

God of promise and possibility,
we look around at places
where people collide with each other.
We hear the grumbling of nations locked into old rivalries and grievances.
We watch the jousting of leaders impressed more by polls than effective policies.
We worry about the future of our communities and our children.
We hear your call to do justice and live generously.

Guide us as citizens to act for justice that brings peace and well being to communities near and far.
Bless the ministries supported by Alongside Hope (formerly known as PWRDF)
across Canada and around the world, and grow in us the interest and intention to contribute to this outreach .

God of all creatures great and small,
All: Make us stewards of what is precious to you.

God of faithfulness and surprise,
we look at ourselves and sometimes doubt
we can make a difference or have an impact.
Challenge us
to recognise the kinds of power we do have:
the love and compassion,
the courage and commitment,
the laughter and friendship,
the generosity and mercy you inspire within us.
In all these gifts we know your power.
Through all these gifts, our lives have been changed.
Using these gifts in our lives,
bring Christ's love and mercy to the world you love.

God of all creatures great and small,
All: Make us stewards of what is precious to you.

Now in this moment, we pray for those who have asked us to pray for them....

God of all creatures great and small,
All: Make us stewards of what is precious to you.

Receive all our prayers, spoken and unspoken
as we offer our prayer, through Christ Jesus.
All: Amen.

Invitation and Peace (Please stand as you are able.)

Priest: The table of bread and wine is now to be made ready.

It is the table of company with Jesus and with all those who love him.

It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world,
with whom Jesus identified himself.

It is the table of communion with the earth
in which Christ became incarnate.

So, come to this table, you who have faith
and you who would like to have more.

You who have been to this sacrament often,
and you who have not been for a long time.

You who have tried to follow Jesus,
and you who have failed.

Come. It is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

As we prepare to come to the table

let us exchange a sign of peace with one another.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

Offertory Hymn:

CP 501 Through All the Changing Scenes of Life

(tune: Wiltshire)

The Preparation of the Table

Prayer over the Gifts

Priest: Eternal God,
in Jesus Christ we behold your glory.

Receive the offering of your people gathered before you,

and open our hearts and mouths
to praise your great salvation,

the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

*Please remain standing for the whole Eucharistic Prayer,
as you are able.*

Eucharistic Prayer

[Source: This resource was created by Anglican Alliance and kindly offered by Rev. Luiz Coelho, DMin Candidate on Liturgy: Sewanee: University of the South, USA. He is from the Province of Brazil. 2018]

Priest: May God be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Priest: It is meet and right to give thanks to you always,
O God, for you are the source of all life.
Since the beginning of time,
you have sustained us through the environment
that you established in creation.
You rule the universe with balance and generosity,
for which all creation never ceases to praise you.
Joining with the company of heaven
and all the creatures of the skies, earth, and seas,
we joyfully praise your holy name, singing:

All: Holy, holy, holy, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full, are full of your glory.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest! (x2)
Blessed, blessed, blessed, blessed is the one coming in the name, the name of our God.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest! (x2)
(From: St. Aidan Setting; John Bell, The Iona Community)

Priest: O God, our creator, you placed us in this world, but did not leave us to live alone.
You surrounded us with your wondrous creation
that we might live in harmony with it, taking only what is necessary to preserve our common life.

Of the world you made a garden
for the flourishing of your people,
yet we strayed from your path.
We judged ourselves powerful and mighty,
planting destruction between us and nature,
and creating a world of inequity,
imbalance, and discontent.
Countless times,
your prophets led us to repentance and new life,
yet we chose to walk in other ways
and persist in our selfish error.

In the fullness of time and in your infinite mercy,
you sent us your Son Jesus Christ,
the source of new life.
He taught us to live in unity with you,
opening the doors to a new creation:
one reconciled to you and sustained by your love.

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus took bread.
Having given thanks to you,
he broke it and gave it to those who were with him,
saying,
“Take, eat. This is my Body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, and having given thanks to you, he gave it to them,
saying, “Take, drink.
This is my Blood of the new and eternal Covenant which is shed for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

Therefore, we proclaim the wondrous mystery:
All: Christ has died. Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest: And, giving thanks to you for restoring us in the ways of your Kingdom,
we offer you these gifts of bread and wine:
fruits of the earth and of your creation.
Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit,
that they may be for us
the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Sanctify us also, that in union with Christ
we may fill the world with your love, renewing it with the gift of your Gospel.

Preserve us in rebuilding the world around us and restoring the balance of nature.
Grant that we may see in your creation that splendid garden, worthy of respect and care.

Evermore strengthen your Church in the struggle to preserve the environment and the diversity of life within it.

And, at the last day,
bring us to your heavenly Kingdom,
where in the company of St. Luke, St. Michael,
and all your saints,
we may never cease to glorify you in the new creation of Jesus Christ.

By Christ, with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God,
now and forever.

All: Ameni, ameni, amen, amen, amen, ameni. (repeat)
(From: Young men; Christ the New Man Parish, Ga-Rankuwa, South Africa; GIA Publications, Inc.)

The Lord's Prayer

Priest: In the words that our Saviour taught us, we pray:

All: Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
have mercy on us. (twice)
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
grant us peace, grant us peace, grant us peace.
(From: St. Bride Setting; John Bell, The Iona Community)

The Notice that Was Read Out at the 10 am Service on Sunday September 21st:

Good Morning. My name is Claire White and I am your People's Warden. I am speaking to you today on behalf of the Executive of St. Luke's. The Executive is always trying to find new ways to work together collaboratively with the parishioners.

We are very pleased and happy to have Heather Stewart come onboard as a consultant and help us work through a new process to assist with conflict resolution within the parish. As Heather mentioned to those of us who attended the first meeting on Sunday August 10th, it can seem to be a bit clunky and different to what we might be used to, but we all need to respect each others' opinions and comments in a mature and friendly way.

We know the flag issue is a very touchy subject and Heather had mentioned that we are not to get personal or make side comments, as we want everyone to have the opportunity to have their say.

However, despite the process being set out to us all, there were some personal comments and side discussions that were said and not picked up on at the time. I would like to offer our apologies from the Executive that this caused upset amongst some parishioners and this is not our intent, in fact it is quite the opposite.

Going forward, when we have the opportunity to have these discussion meetings, we ask that we come together with respect for each other and refrain from being personal or making side comments, so that we can all work to a more positive outcome.

The Executive are here to help with this process and give everyone who wants to be heard the opportunity to do so, in order for us all to move forward to a collaborative conclusion in this matter.

Thank you and Blessings to you all.

Silver and Sage 55+ Social Group

Silver and Sage, a 55+ social group, is now meeting at St. Luke's. This new community outreach, run by volunteers, is for anyone from any background or walk of life.

Whether you're looking to learn, laugh, or simply connect with others in a vibrant community, this gathering is designed to offer something for everyone. Share your stories, discover new interests, and make lasting memories with fellow members. We will offer focussed and informative discussions, physical exercise, art and music.

Meetings will be held twice a month, on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays, 1:30 – 3:30 pm. Occasionally we may meet on Saturdays to encourage intergenerational gatherings or to accommodate a special activity. We will be using the St. Luke's church space for speakers and musical events, and we have the option of the Hall or the Sequoia Lounge for other forms of activity.
