

Rescued – Consider Yourself Warned

September 28, 2025

- 1) Which of the 10 plagues do you think you could survive in the longest?
- 2) Share about a time that ignored a warning and paid the price or a time that you obeyed a warning and avoided trouble.
- 3) Why do you think it's sometimes so hard to listen to warnings even when we know they are wise?
- 4) What does a "hard heart" look like in our world today?
- 5) In what ways do God's warnings protect us rather than limit us?
- 6) With the plagues going on and Pharaoh refusing to listen, Moses, Aaron, and the Israelites were living in a chaotic situation. How have you experienced God's presence in the midst of a chaotic situation?
- 7) When has God spoken unexpectedly in your life—perhaps through circumstances, other people, or even a song? What helped you recognize that moment as God speaking, and how did that encounter shape your perspective?
- 8) How can we learn to tune our hearts and ears towards the voice of Father, Son, and Spirit in our day to day lives?
- 9) The plagues demanded a choice between obedience and defiance—with real consequences. How does this reality speak to the daily choices you face in your walk with Christ? What influences your decision to trust God's way over your own?
