

What can stop the Lord?

1 Samuel 14:1-23

Things to think about:

- Jonathan says, "Perhaps the Lord will act in our behalf." What does this tell us about taking action even when we are not 100% sure of the outcome? How do we balance faith and discernment?
- Jonathan seeks a sign from God through the Philistines' response. How should we view the practice of asking for signs today? When might it be appropriate and inappropriate?
- What does this passage teach us about God's role in spiritual or life "battles"? How much is ours to do, and how much is God's?
- What are Bible verses you go to when you feel hopeless?
- What are practical ways we can live out: Faith focuses on God and not the circumstances?

Missionary of the Week

Joseph and Larissa Colyn, Ethnos Canada

Joseph and Larissa serve in Papua New Guinea. As an 18-year-old Joseph spent time hiking in Irian Jaya. He also spent 3 months living with a missionary family in a village in Papua New Guinea. Joseph was challenged by this to be involved in tribal missions. Larissa grew up in Papua New Guinea as a missionary kid. Presently Joseph is the Asia Regional Security Coordinator, and Larissa is the Candidate Coach. Pray for them as they go to visit Larissa's mom, wrapping up their home assignment.

General Fund to the end of August

Year-end adjustments reduced our General Fund balance by $5,525 due to purchases of that amount that went into capital assets. Income was low in August, being almost $8,500 under budget. Expenses were also under budget, but by a lesser amount. Our deficit of $3,756.46 reduces the General Fund balance to just over $80,000. Our grade remains an A, but we are now $10,000 below an A+.

The large percentage drop in income from last year is because we received a special $30,000 gift in 2024, which made last year's results exceptionally strong. Expenses will climb significantly in September as we begin a new ministry year and pay our annual property and liability insurance premium. Thank you for worshipping God through your gifts to support His work at PTC.
