

Isaiah 11:3-4
Luke 6:20-26

As citizens of the Kingdom of God, Jesus is our perfect example. In the same way Jesus stood with poor, oppressed, and marginalized people, we are to stand with such people.

Passing the Peace

Prelude Instrumental

Greeting / Call to Worship (Isaiah 11:1-9)

Liturgist: A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit.

Congregation: The Spirit of the Lord will rest on him—the Spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, and fear of the Lord

Liturgist: He won't judge by what he sees with his eyes, or decide by what he hears with his ears;

Congregation: but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth.

Liturgist: He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.

Congregation: Righteousness will be his belt and faithfulness the sash around his waist.

Liturgist: The wolf will live with the lamb, the leopard will lie down with the goat, the calf and the lion and the yearling together; and a little child will lead them.

Congregation: The cow will feed with the bear, their young will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox.

Liturgist: The infant will play near the cobra's den, and the young child will put its hand into the viper's nest.

Congregation: They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. Amen.

Opening Song* "Come, Now is the Time to Worship" On Screens

Opening Prayer* (Prayer of St. Francis)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
