

Small Group Guide

Opening Prayer: Ask God to guide your discussion and help everyone understand His perspective on true freedom.

Key Takeaways:

1. Biblical freedom differs from cultural/American freedom.
2. True freedom in Christ means freedom to serve others and glorify God.
3. Jesus exemplified ultimate freedom through servanthood and sacrifice.

Discussion Questions:

1. How does the sermon's definition of Christian freedom differ from how our culture typically defines freedom?
2. Reflect on Paul's statement: "Though I am free and belong to no one, I have made myself a slave to everyone to win as many as possible." What does this mean for us today?
3. Pastor Jeff mentioned that American freedom often focuses on individual rights, while Jesus emphasizes serving others. How have you experienced this tension in your own life?
4. Discuss the example of Jesus washing His disciples' feet (John 13). How does this act demonstrate true freedom?
5. How might our church community look different if we all embraced this biblical understanding of freedom?
6. The sermon mentioned the church's response during COVID-19. Can you think of other situations where choosing to serve others over asserting your rights made a positive impact?
7. What are some practical ways we can exercise our freedom to serve others and advance God's kingdom this week?
