

If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

LIVING ROSARY

Sunday October 12, 2025

Immediately following the 10 am Mass

Outside, weather permitting

As you know, October is Respect Life Month throughout the worldwide Catholic Church. The Church calls us to pray for the unborn, the aged, the poor, the sick, and all marginalized people.

Come join your fellow parishioners in praying the Rosary of the Blessed Virgin. Families are encouraged to participate. We are extremely kid-friendly! Last year's Living Rosary was a wonderful experience, but we all need more people. The event takes approximately 30 minutes.

A Prayer for Life: "Heavenly Father, the beauty and dignity of human life was the crowning of your creation. You further ennobled that life when your Son became one with us in His incarnation. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death. Give us courage to speak with truth and love and with conviction in defense of life. Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence your gift of life. To all, grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others. We ask this in Jesus' Name. Amen."

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

If you have questions about any of our Faith Formation activities, please Contact: Eileen Koch at adultfaithformation@spnparish.org OR 215-696-2089.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION – October 6, 7, 8

The first diocesan program of the Forty Hours Devotion in the United States began at the Church of St. Philip Neri in Philadelphia on May 26, 1853. On that date, the Feast of Corpus Christi, Bishop John Neumann (1811-1860)—now St. John Neumann—introduced the devotion at this church in honor of our patron, St. Philip Neri, who had introduced the Forty Hours Devotion in Rome three centuries before. "Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us." St. Alphonsus Ligouri. We continue this devotion here at St. Philip Neri each year. We pray that you will join us these three nights, October 6, 7, 8, or even one, to celebrate this Eucharistic Devotion. Please see insert page for details.

MEN'S FIRESIDE CHAT – October 10th – 7PM until?

Registration in narthex after all masses October 4 and 5 or call Eileen Koch 215-696-2089.

Cost of bus TBD – approx. $30pp, plus $5 donation for each shrine.

Crossing the Threshold of Hope: A Women's Retreat; With Bernadette Rudolph, MA, MS

During this Jubilee Year of Hope, we are asked to celebrate our Spiritual Journey and how it leads us to and from Jesus, our Gate (John 10:7). Enjoy this Day of Reflection to ponder the Holy Doors through which you have passed and those you are called to cross over with faith and love. Bernadette Rudolph, MA, MS, Facilitator, is Director of Facilitation and Strategic Partnerships at Cranaleith Spiritual Center, Philadelphia. She has earned degrees in the liberal arts, religion and religious education and educational leadership, as well as a certificate in spiritual direction. Her experience includes communal discernment, Scripture study, retreat work and pastoral care.

BIBLE STUDY – Fall sessions have resumed. For more information, please contact Eileen Koch per above.

LECTIO DIVINA – Meets on Thursday mornings at 10:30am in the St. Anne's Meeting Room. If you have not been part of Lectio in the past, Lectio Divina means "divine reading" in Latin. It is a traditional Christian practice of scriptural reading and prayer intended to promote communion with God. It involves a slow, contemplative reading of a passage of Scripture, with the goal of encountering God through His Word. We read, reflect and discuss the readings and the Gospel for the coming Sunday. All are welcome!

SPN Parish Council Holy Moment Thought... "FINDING GOD"

"Whoever finds God, finds everything; whoever loses God loses everything."
(St Robert Bellarmine, Bishop and Doctor of the Church)

"When a large crowd gathered, with people from one town after another journeying to Jesus, he spoke in a parable. A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path and was trampled, and the birds of the sky ate it up. Some seed fell on rocky ground, and when it grew, it withered for lack of moisture. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew with it and choked it. And some seed fell on good soil, and when it grew, it produced fruit a hundredfold. After saying this, he called out, "Whoever has ears to hear ought to hear." (Luke 8: 4-8).

The seed is the Word of God. The seed that fell on the path may be likened to those living today in western societies. Unbridled affluence and materialism have eroded the faith of Our Fathers. People hear the Gospel and let it be trampled underfoot, the cares of daily life eat up this trampled seed. The Gospel message falls on rocky soil and withers when we hear the Word on Sundays only and have no prayer life to water and soften our rocky hearts. And when we begin to understand God's Word, we often allow the pettiness of squabbles, the pain of past hurts or pride or power to be the thorns which choke out our real ability to grow in the Word.

Sometimes, we hear the Word and prefer to be hearers only and not doers. Our ever merciful Savior continues to sow the Word every day through the Sacred Scriptures, teachings from Sacred Tradition and the Magisterium. How do we nurture a hundredfold production of our faith? You, too, are a sower of the Word whether you are a parent, teacher, catechist, evangelist, nurse, politician, garbage collector, etc. Whatever you are or do, the Lord has entrusted you to partner with Him to transform the world today. How do you respond?

Please consider saying the following prayer...Lord Jesus, you have chosen me to be your disciple. Please help me to fulfill your calling. Take and use what I can offer, however meager it may seem, for the greater glory of your name. Amen
