Dear Joseph,

I was blessed again with opportunities at Bufford Grove Baptist Church. I did the adult Sunday school class for Brother Hal Merritt. Pastor Carringer did the a.m. and p.m. service.

While accomplishing all of the normal duties around the church on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, I started packing for my trip to be with Pastor Dean and Mrs. Teresa Bowser at Calvary Baptist Church in Roanoke, Virginia. I will be there for the final week of their month-long mission's conference. I have not seen pastor Dean and Mrs. Teresa for two years and I am really looking forward to catching up. 😊. They have been longtime friends and supporters of the Barnabas International Ministry.

I flew to Roanoke on Thursday. On my second leg of the trip, I had a great opportunity to share the Gospel with a young lady (Using the Jeff Kroskob tract). She did not get saved, but she certainly knows how to be saved and has information in hand to read and how to accept Jesus Christ into her heart as her personal, Lord and Savior.

I was picked up at the airport by Pastor Dean and his son Matt. We went out and had a bite to eat. They took me home and got me settled in the prophet's chamber at the church. It had been a long day, and I got a great night's sleep. 🛏️

Friday was an office day, and I did catch up on some things Pastor Dean and I went out to eat Friday evening. Mrs. Teresa is recovering from knee surgery.

We had planned some outdoor projects for today, but the rain came, and we had another office day. I was glad since I'll be preaching all three services tomorrow. It is a privilege but also a challenge to close out the mission's conference.

Let us continue to pray  one for another.

P. S. Pray for my Sis Shirley Ann.

Saturday Eve Barna-Post

"Thoughts To Ponder"

"Rejected Of Men 😞?"

Isaiah 53:3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from Him; He was despised, and we esteemed Him not.

Jesus had fed a crowd of 5000 with five loaves and two fishes. The people were so excited that they wanted to force Him to be their king. But Jesus escaped, and the next day he explained to them that He is the bread of life. This miracle of multiplying the loaves and fishes, and God's provision for manna for their forefathers in the wilderness, both pertained to physical bread. Now Jesus spoke of the spiritual bread that he would give eternal life.

When Jesus said that they must eat His flesh and drink His blood, the people responded that it was a hard saying, and many walked away (John 6:60) ... John 6:67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? ... John 6:68 Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. But Jesus told them that one of them was a devil and was going to betray Him. He was being rejected in all these ways. Of course, Jesus had experience rejection ever since Adam and Eve; yet now, as a man, He still felt the hurt.

This was Jesus' path to the cross. Even the twelve, who promised loyalty, would forsake Him. Jesus would be falsely accused, cruelly beaten, rejected in favor of a murderer, and shamefully crucified. He would even feel as if God had forsaken Him at the point of death. This was part of God's redemption plan for mankind.

Please listen up my friend ... The time is coming when; ...every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess ... that Jesus Christ is Lord.

We have the invitation today to bow and become a part of his kingdom of believers. If we reject him, the day is coming when we will bow before Him in terror and be cast into outer darkness. How much better is it to accept and serve Jesus as Lord today!
