LOOKING FORWARD

Our Gospel Meeting will take place November 2-5. We are looking forward to this uplifting week. This year, Clay Leonard will be preaching. Clay and his wife Jessica live in Paris, Kentucky, where he currently serves as the pulpit minister at the Paris church of Christ. His lessons will be biblical, challenging, and encouraging.

In order for our Gospel Meeting to have a maximum impact, three things need to happen. First, you need to make attendance a priority. I understand that many things compete for our time and attention. Schedules are constantly full. With that said, there is nothing more important than hearing God's word and being revived by it. We all need a shot in the arm from time to time. Our Gospel Meeting can provide that. Second, you need to invite your friends, neighbors, and co-workers to join us. The gospel is just as powerful today as it ever has been, but to make an impact it must be heard. We have a great responsibility to share it with those around us. Take advantage of this great opportunity to share the gospel with others. Invite. Invite. Invite. Third, you need to pray daily for the success of this effort. Pray that the message will be delivered in a powerful and motivational way. Pray that those who need to hear the messages most will be present. Pray that the seeds sown during the week will bear much fruit.

FALL YOUTH RETREAT

Our Fall Youth Retreat will take place October 31-November 2. It will be held this year at Tombigbee State Park. The theme is "ALL IN." Lessons will be drawn from Deuteronomy 6:4-9. This will be a special time for those in 7th-12th grades. Johnson Ramsey will be the guest speaker for the weekend. For more information, see Cason Pearce.

May God Bless You All!
