Welcome, guests!

If you are our guest today, we welcome you in the name of Jesus. We want you to enjoy worship and experience it in a way that is best for you. *Stand only as you are comfortable and able.

Altar flowers are in honor of Eric and Brittany Hewitt's anniversary by Carol Schwartz.

Nuts & Treats

The United Women in Faith (UMW) are once again selling wonderful items from Farmstead Nuts and Treats. The order forms are on the poster outside the church office: fill out your form, attach your check made out to UMW and add to the wooden box. Final day to order is Sunday, November 9. Proceeds go to mission work through the United Women in Faith and other local mission partners. We appreciate your support!

The road to 190 years...

Did you know there are three small stained glass windows in the narthex? The one on the west is in memory of John Henry and Mary Knoepker (anyone ever shop at Knoepker's on the Square?). The window in the middle is dedicated to Q. H. Goodman. Quint came to Independence from Kentucky in 1867 and managed a large farm on Truman road 6 miles east of town. He was a long time member of this church. The east window commemorates Kate. B. Henley, who came to Jackson County in 1855 and was engaged in the grocery business. The Henleys had one son and six daughters and were long time members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.
