Thank You!

We give thanks to God for our dear friends in the Heidelberg Brass Band and their ministry among us today! Ever since Pastor Glenn Beard created this polka mass, the band has brought great joy to thousands of people in many faith communities. We are so blessed that they are once again at St. Martin's, so please extend warm greetings to all of them, as well as loved ones who are also here today.

Following worship, we invite everyone to go to the fellowship hall for our annual Oktoberfest! We will continue to celebrate with brats, beverages, warm fellowship, and great music. We also invite everyone to contribute to the cost of lunch by using the big mugs on each table.

Finally, the event wouldn't have been possible without the care and coordination of our cadre of trusty volunteers. So, for all who have planned, cooked, set up, etc.-- we thank you and we thank God FOR you. We hope many of you can stay to help clean up because many hands make light work, even if you're wearing lederhosen.

We thank our Lord as we celebrate His great love through this joyous annual tradition!

Apocalypse Now: A Study on the Book of Revelation

Wednesdays, October 8, 15, & 22 | 6:30–8:00 pm | Sanctuary

Revelation is one of the most misunderstood books of the Bible—full of beasts, battles, and strange images. But what if it isn't really about predicting the end of the world?

Join us for a three-week study on the Book of Revelation:

October 8 – Seeing the Unseen: Explore Revelation's unforgettable imagery and how it has shaped everything from the Left Behind series to The Lord of the Rings.

October 15 – Echoes of the Old Testament: Discover Revelation's deep roots in the prophets, especially Ezekiel.

October 22 – The Cross at the Center: See how the whole book points not to fear of the future, but to the hope of Christ's crucifixion and resurrection revealed to us now.

Sign-up: Please sign up on the clipboard in the back or by emailing Pastor Micah so that materials can be shared with you in advance.

All are welcome—bring your questions, curiosity, and imagination!

October Sunday Forum: Romans and the Reformation

Join us on Sundays, October 12, 19, and 26, during the 9:00 a.m. hour between services, as we explore the deep connections between Paul's letter to the Romans and the Reformation. Together we'll look at how Paul's words shaped Martin Luther's theology and sparked a movement that continues to call the church to renewal and reform today.
