You are welcome at St. James Episcopal Cathedral!

At St. James Episcopal Cathedral, we embrace the teachings of Jesus Christ, seeking to follow His example of love, compassion, and justice. We strive to be a community that welcomes and celebrates diversity, honoring the dignity and worth of every human being. Here, you will find a place where questions are encouraged, doubts are welcomed, and the journey of faith is nurtured.

On Sundays we have a service in English at 8 a.m. in the Chapel, at 9:30 a.m. we have a service in English in the Cathedral and at 11:30 a.m. we have a service in Spanish in the Cathedral. In between the 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. service each week, you are invited to join us for Coffee Hour in the Fireside Room. The restrooms are in the back of the Cathedral. An usher will be happy to direct you. If you are interested in hearing more from the Cathedral, please fill out the Welcome Card located in the chairback in front of you. You can place the card in the offering plate or give it to an usher or member of the clergy. You can also follow us on social media using the QR code on the Welcome Card!

Children at St James Cathedral – Sunday School in Session

There is a soft space play area at the back of the Cathedral. It is intended for those moments when little ones – or anyone – might need a break from the service. There are children's Church Activity Bags and coloring pages available in the narthex (just inside the main doors) to use during the church service. During the school year, we offer Sunday School on the first and third Sundays of the month. Check In begins at 9:15 a.m. in the Cathedral Narthex. Our Sunday School teachers will provide information for new students and parents.

Sermon

The Nicene Creed – BCP page 358

Presider and People:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Deacon or Lay Leader:

Gracious God, you sent your Holy Spirit to teach us to love, to carry the Gospel into all the world, care for all your people, and celebrate the abundance of your holy creation. Believing in your promise that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall see the glory of God, we offer you these prayers saying, Lord, hear our prayers.

Teach us to be the church you have imagined. We pray for your church, its members and its mission in the world: for Sean, our Presiding Bishop, David our bishop, our clergy and all who minister. (Silence) With one voice we offer these prayers to you saying,
Lord, hear our prayers.

Grant, O God, that your holy and life-giving Spirit may so move every human heart, that barriers which divide us may crumble, suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease; that our divisions being healed, we may live in justice and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord, hear our prayers.

For this nation and all nations, and for all in authority. Guide our leaders in the ways of justice and peace, and give us the will and courage to be your love in the world through word and action. (Silence) We pray saying,

Lord, hear our prayers.

For the holy use of your creation, our island home, for the nourishment of our brothers and sisters of all races, creeds, abilities, languages, and nationalities. Help us be better stewards of your creation. (Silence) We pray saying,

Lord, hear our prayers.

For all who suffer in any kind of trouble: for the sick, the imprisoned, the lonely, the poor, and for those who love and care for them, especially those we now name aloud or in the silence of our hearts (please offer your prayers)

_____. We pray saying,
Lord, hear our prayers.

For those who have died in the hope of your eternal kingdom, and for those departed whose faith is known to you alone, we pray for those we now name aloud or in the silence of our hearts: _____. We pray saying,

Lord, hear our prayers.

Presider:

Holy Spirit, hear the prayers of our hearts, and fill us with your love. Help us to share the fruits of your Spirit with all we touch in our daily lives. Let all that we ask and all that we do, be done in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The Confession – BCP pg. 360

Deacon or Presider:

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider:

Almighty God have mercy on you, + forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Presider: The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving - Eucharistic Prayer B

Presider: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. [For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.] Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Presider and People:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san-na in the high-est. San - to, san - to, san - to es el Se - ñor. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na en el cie - lo. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na en el cie - lo.

Presider:

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Presider and People:

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, + that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with James and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer – BCP pg. 364

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Presider: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Facing the people, the Presider says the following Invitation:

Presider: God's holy gifts, for God's holy people.

THOSE RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION:

All baptized Christians are invited to receive communion. It is the custom to come forward and place the palm of one hand in the other to receive the bread. Please tell the clergy distributing communion if you prefer a gluten-free wafer. You are welcome to drink from the chalice or the server will intinct for you.

You may make the sign of the cross before or after you receive communion. Upon returning to your seat, you may kneel or be seated.

FOR THOSE WHO WISH TO RECEIVE A BLESSING IN LIEU OF COMMUNION:

It is the custom to come forward and to fold your arms across your chest in an X-fashion, which indicates that you are not receiving the sacrament. The Priest will offer a prayer of blessing for you.

PRAYER BEFORE RECEIVING COMMUNION

As the servers and musicians receive communion, you may continue our spiritual work of preparation and thanksgiving with a prayer:

Be present, be present, O Jesus, our great High Priest, as you were present with your disciples, and be known to us in the breaking of bread; who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.
