

Week 5: A Question about Faith

Series: The Questions Jesus Asked

Key Verses: Luke 7:1–10; Mark 6:1–6; Luke 18:1–8

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: In the parable of The Persistent Widow, Jesus closes with the question, “However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?” What Jesus seems to want most from us is that we trust him... All the way to the very end.

The dictionary says, “to be amazed is to be overcome with wonder.”

Have you ever seen something truly amazing? Read Luke 7:1-10, and notice the word amazed. The only other place the New Testament says Jesus was amazed is in Mark 6:1-6, where he visits his hometown of Nazareth.

In the first story Jesus is amazed to find great faith where he did not expect it. In the second story, he was amazed to find weak faith where he did not expect it.

Two Questions:

1. If Jesus came to your house, what would he expect to find in the way of faith?
2. What would he find? Would he be amazed or not?

What God wants most from people...

What God desires most from you and me is faith—he wants us to trust him.

Read the Parable of the Persistent Widow (Luke 18:1-8).

FOUR STEPS TOWARD GREATER _____.

1. Decide to _____.

- “If anyone chooses to do God’s will, he will find out whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own” (John 7:17).
- “If you seek the Lord your God, you will find him, if you look for him with all your heart” (Deuteronomy 4:29).

2. Go where _____ is.

- Hang out with people of faith whom you respect.

3. Clarify the _____ of your faith.

- Always remember that the most important thing about faith is Whom your faith is in.

4. _____ something.

Experiment with faith — True faith requires you to do something, not just believe something.
